Ski club sweeps three races

It was a clean sweep for Milton skiers over the weekend as they won all three dual meets they were involved in.

The Milton Heights Ski Club Green team beat the London Ski Club 126-51 at Mansfield, the MHSC Red team knocked off Alpine 142-72 at Caledon, while the MHSC White team edged the Oshawa Ninja's 114-82 at Glen Eden.

For the Green team, both the MHSC male and female skiers finished first, second and third overall. On the women's side Monique Hoswing of Norval was first, Heidi Heckman of Oakville second and Cathy Bradley of Milton third. For the men, Mike West of Oakville was first, Ryan Page of Oakville second and Matt Bressner of Oakville third.

On the Red team, the men again finished 1-2-3 in the overall. Jeff Kunze of Milton led the way. He was followed by Danny Antonio of Campbellville in second and Mark Hoewing of Norval in third. For the women, Holly Bamber of Oakville finished first, Kathleen Pigette of Waterdown was second and Angela Fitzsimmons of Georgetown was fifth overall.

The White team saw its women sweep the top three placings with Stacy O'Neill of Oakville taking first, Natalie Clarke of Milton in second, and third belonging to Allison Sterling of Brampton. On the men's side, Don Drnovsek of Campbellville took second overall, Derrick Glende of Milton was third, and Brent Garell of Mississauga was fifth.

The next action for these teams is Saturday, Jan. 14.

 cond period to give Milton the lead. In the third period, goals came from Doug Janjevich, Ryan Pender and Jeff Seeds.

Milton then travelled to Streetsville and played a near flawless defensive game in downing their hosts 2-0. Milton only allowed Streetsville five shots on goal as Jeff Langille secured the shutout. Scoring for Milton were Tom Baynton and Lennox.

In the third game, Milton hosted Burlington and managed to win the shootout 7-4. The big story in this game was Janjevich scoring twice to give him 50 on the season. Other goals went to Jeff Seeds with two and singles to Baynton, Trevor Petherick and Robert Haringa.

Atom AA

The Milton Legion atom AA rep team won a pair of games over the weekend, 4-2 over Orangeville and 7-2 over Flamboro.

Scott Bertoli led the way in Orangeville with three goals while the single went to Ian MacIntosh. Assists went to Todd Belford, Jeff Haydar, Mark McPhail, Scott Tovey and Doug Frehs.

Sunday saw Milton host Flamboro and have an easy time. Bertoli and Haydar both scored twice while singles went to Brad Jenkins, McPhail and Trevor Kuhn.

Legionnaires are comfortably in first place in their league with a 21-1-3 record.
