

Wave Sensation couldn't call for help

Telephone wires were cut and a telephone was taken from The Wave Sensation on Main St. sometime overnight last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Police say entry was gained through the front door of the shop. The door was forced by the culprit's shoulder.

The missing phone is valued at $100.

Trailer break-in

A trailer at the Union Gas pumping station on Ninth Line at Derry Rd. was entered sometime overnight last Wednesday and Thursday.

Police say entry was gained when the culprits cut a chain surrounding the site. A padlock was also removed.

Stolen was a Honda generator, and Stihl saw valued at $2,000.

Missing skis

Police are investigating the theft of several skis, bindings and poles from Glen Eden Ski Area over the past week.

Police report at least two pairs of skis were stolen from the ski area. One set was valued at $300, the other at $350.

There has been a rash of ski thefts at Glen Eden over the past

Gunslingers wanted to test Black Bart on Jan. 29

So you think you're a quick draw. You'll have an opportunity to prove it on Sunday Jan. 29 at Holly's Tavern.

Gunslingers can go up against the fastest draw in Canada, Black Bart, for big prizes, and an opportunity to donate to a worthy cause at the same time.

Thomas Remedial Equestrian Centre (T.R.E.C.) is presenting the day long competition to raise money to keep the centre running. TREC offers a horseback riding program for physically, mentally and emotionally handicapped individuals. Many of the participants are children.

Mike and Elayne Holly, owners of the tavern on Steeles Ave., have donated the use of their facility and band from 1-8 p.m. There will be a $3 cover charge which will be donated toward TREC.

Black Bart, a.k.a. Jim Flett, of Palermo will have his draw timed. Challengers will have an opportunity to beat the champ's time. Finals will begin about 7 p.m. that evening.

Each challenger will be asked to make a donation for each draw made.

Challengers will have to be 16 years and up. But there will be plenty of activities for children also. There will be a colouring contest, and a basketball contest is in the works.

Tumbleweed Jones, a local prospector will be on hand. Musician Tom Destry, former back-up for Loretta Lynn, will provide some country music.

Several prizes have already been confirmed including: a gift basket from The Second Cup, equestrian eye glasses from Bahr Saddlery, dinner for two from Bayrischer-Hof, children's cook set from Consumers Distributing, toy truck from G.M. Volvo, and wrist watches from Ryan Daniels Jewellery in Oakville.

The fast draw grand prize has not yet been announced.

Organizer and TREC volunteer, Jim Anscorb, is optimistic that 500 people might drop into Holly's throughout the day. TREC survives largely on money raised through special events like the Past Draw Challenge.
