Many letters of thanks written to Presbyterian women's association

The Women's Association and Missionary group of Omagh Presbyterian church held their January meeting in the church hall with 11 members present.

Mrs. J.C. Marshall presided for the opening hymns and W.A. creed. Mrs. W. Milligan led in responsive Scripture reading and gave a prayer. Financial statements and reports of the previous year were given.

Letters of thanks were read from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peacock for a gift on their 50th wedding anniversary recently, from Milton District Hospital for a donation in memory of the late Miss Ellen Chapman, and from Halton Women's Place for clothing for shut-ins were remembered at Christmas and donations also were made to Evangel Hall and Scott Mission. A thank you is to be sent for donation from a member unable to attend the meetings.

Business for the New Year 1989 was planning for the annual bazaar to be held Oct. 21 at Boyne Community Centre. The executive for the coming year is comprised of president Mrs. J.C. Marshall, vice-president Ms. H. Peacock, secretary Mrs. Jim Watson and treasurer Mrs. Milligan.

The W.M.S. meeting was chaired by Mrs. C. Patterson Sr. All repeated the creed and the thought for the day was read by Mrs. H. Peacock.

Members were pleased to welcome back one of the group who had been absent because of ill health. Reports of the previous year showed the allocation had been met, plans for 1989 work were discussed, secret sisters were chosen, and the group hopes to entertain Boston W.M.S. ladies at a pot luck luncheon at church hall on June 4.

A picnic meeting will be held in August and October. Mrs. Nancy Roulins, president of the Brampton Presbytery, will be the guest speaker. It was decided that roll call at each meeting will be answered by a favourite verse of scripture. Executive officers for 1989 are: president Mrs. C. Patterson, vice-president Mrs. F. Amme, secretary Mrs. H. Peacock, treasurer Mrs. C. Patterson and assistant Mrs. H. Brown.

The meeting closed with prayer after which Mrs. Marshall served afternoon tea and a dainty lunch. Birthday greetings and good wishes to Clarence Ford Sr. on his special day recently.

Sincere sympathy is extended to all who mourn the passing of Mrs. Douglas Howden following a car accident on Dec. 29. Police were called to two homes in the area when their owners returned home to discover someone had broken in and removed valuable items. This is the third home to be broken into recently.

Happy Birthday to Katie Patterson who will celebrate her sixth anniversary on Jan. 21.

The weekly suchre at Hornby Centre on Jan. 14 had 10 tables in play. Winners were Mary Chamberlain, Dorothy Featherston, Florrie Alcott, Lillian Shapley, Rob King, R. Featherston, Edward King, and Christina Bailey. Lone hands tied with four, E. McGilvary, Geo. Dowling, Chas Johnson.

Big pipe idea gets blast

cerned about how long it would take to deliver the conduit. Mr. Melanson said delays mean Milton will lose young families to other centres.

"A lot of children living in this town today will have to go to Cobourg or St. Catharines to get a starter home."

Mr. Melanson supports new residential growth to bolster Milton business too, but Mr. Day countered that new growth may mean "more customers, but also more competition. I don't see it as a major benefit to the chamber of commerce."

Regional officials said that if stage three well work goes ahead, it becomes questionable whether Halton will be able to financially support its share of the big pipe later. The stage three well work involves upgrading a sewer plant as well as drilling new wells, and is expected to cost at least $11 million. Stage one and two cost estimates run to only $2 million.

A pipeline could cost as much as $100 million.
