

Thief caught red-handed breaking into several cars

A 22-year-old Coulson Ave. man has been charged with theft under $1,000 after he was observed entering and rummaging through several cars parked at E.C. Drury High School last Tuesday morning. Police say they received a call from someone who saw the man entering the cars. Police arrived and after a short foot chase the culprit was apprehended.

He had removed a leather case, valued at $50, from one of the cars.

He is to appear in provincial court in Milton on Monday Feb. 20.

Missing VCR

A VCR, valued at $300, was stolen from Harvey's Restaurant on Market Dr. sometime between Jan. 13 and Jan. 20.

The VCR was in a storeroom in the building. Police are investigating.

Break and enter

A banner emblazoned with Kelly Services was stolen from the business of the same name at 192 Main St. E. sometime overnight Thursday and Friday.

The banner is 2 ft. high by 5 ft. wide. Entrance was gained by slip-

Surprise guest

Patricia Finnegan's parents didn't know whether to believe their daughter when she told them there was a dinosaur on their front lawn Saturday morning. The eight-year-old discovered the papier-mache beast at their Broadway Ave. home. Marie Finnegan, Patricia's mom, says the dinosaur's origin is a mystery.
