

Lifestyle

Wednesday Feb. 15, 1989

15% OFF Giftware

FULL LINE OF JEWELLERY AND REPAIRS

JUNEL & H. JEWELLERS

CARRIAGE SQUARE
241 MAIN STREET EAST
MILTON, ONTARIO L7Y 4P7
875-2732

Community Notebook

Blood Clinic: Blood donors are urged to attend the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic tomorrow (Thursday) at E.C. Drury School for the Hearing Impaired. The clinic will run from 1:30-8 p.m. This is the first of four clinics held throughout the year by the Milton Unit of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Ski Race: The Corbett Challenge Race will be off and running at Glén Eden Ski Area this Sunday beginning at 1 p.m. Registration will be from 9 a.m. to noon. This annual event invites families to try demonstration equipment as well as participate in a fun race. Call 878-5011 for information.

Bird Banding: There's an event geared to early birds and bird lovers at Mountsberg Wildlife Centre on Saturday Feb. 25. Licensed bird banders will catch and band birds from 7-11:30 a.m. Visitors can pay $5 to adopt a bird and support wild bird research. Registration required. Call 854-2276 to book.

Dr. Seuss Day: Pre-registration is required for a celebration of Dr. Seuss's birthday at Milton Public Library, Saturday Feb. 25. Children planning to attend the party are asked to drop in at the library next week to sign the giant birthday card. Call 875-2665 to register.

Merchants meet: The Campbellville Business Association's February meeting is scheduled for Wednesday Feb. 22 at the Mohawk Inn, 8 p.m. This gathering will give members a chance to put the finishing touches to the village's promotional flyer.

Stamp Fair: Milton Stamp Club will host its sixth annual Milton Stamp Fair at Halton Centennial Manor auditorium, Saturday March 4 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Included will be 14 dealer stamp tables presented by the local club.

DBIA Board: The Town of Milton is accepting applications for members to the Downtown Business Improvement Area - Board of Management. Applicants must be residents of Milton, Canadian citizens, be at least 18 years of age and be assessed for business assessment for land designated as the Downtown Business Improvement Area. Potential members are asked to apply in writing to town administrator Roy Main by Thursday Feb. 23.

Easter Seals Dinner: Tickets are available for the annual Easter Seals Dinner/Dance sponsored by the Rotary Club of Milton, Saturday March 25 at the Optimist Centre. The evening will feature Milton's "Tammy" Jamie Zeller and guest speaker Dr. Bob Rumball. Tickets which include the dance and a prime rib of beef dinner, cost $45 per couple ($25 deduction for income tax or $45 deduction for business). Local Rotarians have plenty of tickets available. Dinner will follow a social hour which runs from 6:30-7:15.

Tax Clinic: Space is limited for free income tax clinics offered to senior citizens and handicapped people by Milton Community and Information Services. For details call 875-INFO (4636).

Good weather, organization makes carnival the best ever

Milton's Winter Carnival benefitted from good, cold weather for the first time in a few years and as a result about 2,000 residents participated in the numerous events.

Above: Derek Sandies (left) and Ken Johnson stand with their snow sculpture. Left: Scott Gilbert shows his enthusiasm while participating in the potato sack races.

Below Left: The snowshoe races drew large numbers. Here, Ben Kowalewicz passes the prince of the carnival, Shayne Fergus.

Below Right: The princess of the carnival, Crystal Newton, shows she's more than just another pretty face by participating in the nail-driving contest.

Photos by John Warren

MILTON MALL

BABY CRAWL

Friday, February 17th, 11 A.M.
Registration at 10:45

Presented in conjunction with
Shoppers Drug Mart, Kimberley Clark & Milton Mall