MDHS v-ball champs...

• from MUSTANGS on page 17 day with a two-set sweep of Bishop Reding at Milton's Catholic school.

The four-team tourney put Acton, Georgetown and the two Milton schools into the draw. Milton blasted Acton 15-3, 15-2, Reding 15-7, 15-7, and edged Georgetown 15-3, 12-15 and 15-8 before meeting Reding for the title.

Coach Bryan Camani said his Milton team was rated on about a par with Georgetown and Bishop Reding but his team got on a good streak and took the title. MDHS won the final 16-14, 15-2.

"Volleyball is such a streaky game," he said. "It's a game of momentum. Against Reding, we were losing 5-0 before we got rolling. I think Reding might have suffered a little letdown after losing the first game but our players played well. As a unit, those seven starters played very well."

His seven starters were Marsha Van Cedar, Rachel Steenhof, Carol Newman, Lisa Kan Hai, Carla Johnston, Julie Hildebrand and Katie Leakie.

Beating Reding — twice — came as a bit of a surprise to Camani.

"In all the preliminary games, they'd beaten us every time. I thought we could give them a run for their money because at the last tournament we only lost 17-15 in Acton (one week before)."

Milton's midget basketball team gave undefeated Lester B. Pearson of Burlington a run for their money in the Halton West semi-finals but in the end Pearson still ended up with all the money.

The 6-4 Mustangs lost 47-27 to Pearson, whose 33-0 season record included more lopsided wins than close battles.

"In spite of the score," explained assistant coach Doug Foley, "we thought the boys played well. They took the shots we wanted them to take but they didn't connect."

Guard Blair Gordon played an exceptionally fine game, said coach Keith Swarbrick. Alex Pyle and Trevor Fleet paced Milton's shooters.

Merchants bow quietly from playoffs

Milton Merchants' playoff aspirations came to a screeching halt Friday night when Burlington Cougars turned in an 8-2 rout to capture the series four games to one.

The victory, in Burlington, propelled Cougars into the next round against Streetsville. The first game of that series was played Sunday and won by Burlington.

Although Merchants went out quietly in the final game, they had thrown several scares into the highly vaunted Cougars' attack. Merchants won the second game of the series and were the only losing team in the six first-round playoff series to win even one game.

Milton's interim general manager Harold Wadham said the game was somewhat one-sided and not indicative of the series.

Burlington led 3-0 and 5-0 after the first two periods before goals from sharpshooter Scott Gale and Geoff Pollen put Milton on the board.
