

King places 15th in province for Springers

The Milton Springers Gymnastics Club had competitors in two different competitions over the weekend.

Alyssa King travelled to Ottawa for the Senior B Provincial Championships as a member of the Central Ontario Regional squad. The team placed third of the seven regions and they were aided by King's impressive showing.

King's 15th overall finish with a total score of 34.95 was accomplished with a fifth place finish on the floor, as well as good routines on the bars, vault and beam. Head coach Janet Campbell was very pleased with King's results in this highly competitive category.

The rhythmic gymnastics team, which trains two to three hours a week, were in Cayuga over the weekend taking part in their first-ever team competition.

Both the junior and senior teams, competing against 10 other teams, came home with trophies.

The junior team of Marti Embree, Suzanne Dick, Jane Myers, Katie Murzin, Alexis Barton and Jane Mountain did their group rope routine and won the trophy for best manipulation of apparatus, best rhythmic feel for music and best creativity.

The senior team of Laura French, Erin Card, Kristine Haggerty, Shannon McManus and Royanne Carriere did a group ribbon routine and came away with the trophy for best display of body control and best manipulation of apparatus.

Coach Karen Card couldn't have been more impressed with their results, especially considering the stiff competition in this inaugural meet.

Next weekend Brigette McCann, Vicki Chlisczyk and Sara Castrucci head for Newmarket and the Tyro A and Argo B divisions of the provincial championships as members of the Central Region Team.

There was no stopping pacer Love To Shop

The Falcon Almahurst filly Love To Shop also loves to win races.

The sophomore displayed her pacing prowess Saturday night at Mohawk Raceway in Campbellville when she won her second consecutive race in the Princess Pacing Series.

Dave Wall drove the filly to a three-length win in a time of 1:58.1 for the mile over On The Day and Barbaras B G. It was her fourth win in 11 season starts and the win boosted her bankroll to $52,550.

Last Saturday, Love To Shop took the first race in the series with a 1:57.4 effort.

Love To Shop is owned by Ivan and John Sugg, a father-son team from Deahler, Ohio. It's been 23 years since veteran horseman Ivan Sugg raced at Mohawk.

"Those were the leaner times," remarked Sugg from the winner's circle, referring to 1966 when he drove Where's George and Tidy Sum at Mohawk. "I had a few wins but not many."

Sugg is enjoying some success at the OJC now. The win was Love To Shop's second consecutive victory at Mohawk and puts her in the position of favourite for Saturday's $91,300 final.

"We purchased her as a yearling for $7,200 in Lexington," said Sugg. "When we raced her at Yonkers the paddock judge thought her name was Love To Stop."

The Suggs own and operate an 80-acre farm in Deahler, near Toledo. There they train about 60 horses.

After the Princess, Love To Shop will travel to Lebanon for an Ohio Sires Stakes event, then to Chicago for the Cinderella.

in the bike, set the pace for the mile, reaching the quarter in 28.3 and the half in 59.2 while Wall had Love To Shop tucked in second.

Wall pulled Love To Shop out of the pocket to match strides with On The Day. At the top of the stretch Wall pulled her earplugs out and the filly paced past On The Day to assume command and win by three lengths in 1:58.1.

In the second $10,000 division, Michelle Almahurst paced a wire-to-wire two-minute-flat winning effort for driver Tony Kerwood. Nukes Emerald finished second and Yield To Reason was third.

For the second consecutive week five-year-old Kawartha Pal broke the track record at Mohawk for aged trotters.

Last week, Steve Condren brought the gelding home in 1:58, which was two ticks faster than the previous track mark. Sunday night, however, Kawartha Pal showed that effort was no fluke as he came from behind to set the new standard in 1:57.2.

Kawartha Pal is trained by Chris Christoforou for the Banjo Farm of Toronto.

And Barely Visible overcame post No. 8 to win his fourth consecutive Free For All pace, this one in 1:55.2.

It was the four-year-old gelding's 11th win in 15 starts. He is owned by Antonio Chiaravalle and trained by Bill Robinson.

Tempers flaring

Although tempers got a little fired up during the final game of the Milton Optimist Indoor Soccer League, cooler heads prevailed in the game between Fearmans and the Duchess of Oakville. The Duchess took the title with a 6-1 win after finishing second during the regular season.

Big prizes at fishing derby

Area anglers will have a chance to fish for prizes during the ninth annual Trout Fishing Derby at Kelso Lake, the weekend of May 6-7 from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily.

The lake will be stocked with 1,000 trout when trout season opens Saturday April 29, in preparation for the big derby. During the season, the conservation area will be open from dawn to dusk for fishing.

All anglers between the age of 18-64 years must have a valid Ontario Fishing Licence.

The lake's healthy stock of fish range in size from 8-24 inches. In addition to landing a prize catch, many prizes will be offered at the derby, contributed by Ram-Bow's Fishing and Hunting Supplies of Milton and McDonald's.

Cost to enter the derby is $5 for adults and $4 per person under the age of 12 or over the age of 65. Register at the Kelso gatehouse. Gates open at 6 a.m. when a early bird breakfast will be served at the snack bar and camping is available.

Call 878-5011 for details.

Tennis club weekend bash

The Milton Tennis Club will hold its season opener for both the junior and seniors this weekend at the Milton Tennis Club.

Saturday afternoon will see the seniors play a round-robin tournament while the junior event goes on Sunday. There will be a 1 p.m. registration and start time on both days.

Following both events will be a barbecue at 5 p.m. as well as wine and cheese in the late afternoon.

The event is open to members of the club only, but new members are welcome.

For more information call the Milton Tennis Club at 876-1811.

MST comes home with top honours from Midland

Zausa Fedacek and Andrew McTavish were both perfect for the Milton Swim Team at the Midland Novice Invitational Meet over the weekend, helping the locals win the team event.

Fedacek, swimming in the girls 11- and 12-year-old age group, won gold in the 50m butterfly, 50m freestyle, 100m backstroke, 100m breaststroke, 200m backstroke, 200m freestyle and 200m individual medley.

McTavish took gold in the boys 13-and-over category 50m butterfly, 50m freestyle, 100m butterfly and 100m breaststroke.

The exploits of those two swimmers helped MST to their meet winning total of 529 points, 30 more than their closest pursuer COBRA from Brampton. Overall 12 teams and 225 swimmers took part in the event, hosted by the Midland Y Keegos Swim Club.

Scott Feaver in the boys 13 and over, won the gold in the 200m breaststroke as well as finishing second in the 200m individual medley and 100m breaststroke and third in the 400m freestyle and 200m freestyle. David Houle, swimming in the same age group, took second in the 400m freestyle, 100m butterfly, 200m freestyle and third in the 200m individual medley, 50m butterfly and 50m freestyle.

In the boys 11- and 12-year-old age group, Marc Peternell won the 200m breaststroke, took second in the 100m breaststroke, 100m backstroke and 50m freestyle and third in the 100m freestyle.

In the youngest age group, eight and under, Bradley Scanlon put together a pair of second-place finishes in the 25m breaststroke and the 50m breaststroke. David Kimmerly took second in the 50m backstroke and third in the 25m backstroke.

On the girls side, Celeste Barlow in the 13 and over age bracket, took first place in the 200m backstroke and 100m backstroke, second in the 200m freestyle and third in the 400m freestyle. Ursula Nowosad finished second in the 50m butterfly, 100m butterfly and 200m backstroke and third in the 200m individual medley. Christina Fedacek took third in the 50m freestyle, 100m freestyle and 100m breaststroke.

The most prolific MST swimmer on the day was Amy Pawson in the 11 and 12 year-old age group as she brought home medals in eight events. Pawson finished first in the 100m butterfly, second in the 100m backstroke, 200m backstroke, 200m freestyle, 400m freestyle and 50m butterfly and third in the 200m individual medley and 50m freestyle. Angela Doolan took second in the 20m breaststroke.

Kristi Roselle won the 50m breaststroke in the nine and 10 year-old age bracket as well as finishing second in the 100m breaststroke and third in the 100m backstroke and 100m freestyle.

In the eight and under age group, Jessie Roselle came home fourth in the 25m breaststroke and freestyle and the 50m breaststroke and freestyle.

Milton coach Carole Murray said the team is considering moving up from their current status as a novice team.

"In September we're moving up to the A,B,C,D and E levels, working towards the national level," she
