Working the anvil

Des Ouekama of Baltimore, Ont. near Port Hope, was one of the participants in the first-ever provincial horse shoeing and farrier competition. The event was held over the weekend at the Ontario Agricultural Museum and attracted a large crowd of more than 800 spectators Sunday. Attendance was down Saturday due to the chilly temperatures. The novice division was won by a woman, Inge Matthisen of Winchester, Ont. Bill Everitt of Newmarket won the horseshoeing competition and the top farrier was Gill Holmes of Brantford. Winner of the International Division was Luke Proulx of Welland.
