

Peacock family reunited at Boyne Community Centre

Omagh

ELLA PATTERSON

Several Miltonians took home prizes from the annual Peacock family reunion at Boyne Community Centre, Sunday June 4.

Miltonians Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peacock were the longest married couple and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lemon were the most recently married. The youngest family member present was Mary Szpeflick. Guelph resident Barbara Szpeflick conducted the business for the day which established the next reunion will be held in 1991.

The weekly euchre at Hornby

Centre on June 3 had 13 tables of players and the following winners: Sybil Shields, M. Peacock, E. Middlebrook, Helen Ford, Manuel Madeiras, H. Middlebrook, George Readhead and Bill Green. Lone hands were played by Annie Bush and Bill Golden who each had four and Clara Awkland and D. Featherston each with five.

The June 10 Hornby euchre games had 13 tables of players and winners including: Edna Ball, Vivian Shaw, Mildren Mason, Florrie Alcott, Martha Richardson, Bill Green, Lillian Shapley and Bill Golden. Lone hands were played by Annie Bush with six and Charlotte Greenlees and Jean Stringer both with five.

Congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Giles of Burlington who celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary on June 6. The couple owned and operated a dairy farm in the Palermo area and later, Mr. Giles supervised the transportation of school children in this area. Their many friends wish Kenneth and Ella many more years.

The members of St. Luke's Anglican Church at Palermo celebrated the church's 150th anniversary June 11. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Proud of Listowel, Mrs. Ann Mahand and daughters of Palmerston, Mr. and Mrs. William Raynor, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Raynor and daughter Cathy of Omagh.

The choir and the children of the congregation were piped in by John Terence of Benbrook. The piper played again at the end of the service when children placed bouquets on each grave in the cemetery.

Halton Centre MPP Barbara Sullivan presented a plaque to the church on behalf of the Provincial government. Former rectors Canon Rigby and Rev. Kenneth Patterson assisted by Rev. Olive Shepherd present minister took part in the service.

There will be no church service on June 18 at Omagh Presbyterian Church to allow members to attend the anniversary service at Boston Presbyterian Church.

Birthday greetings and good wishes to Marion Patterson on her special day.

Members of Boston Church Women's Missionary Society were entertained by their counterparts at Omagh Presbyterian Church at a luncheon meeting June 1. Omagh group president Ella Patterson turned over the chair to visiting president Grace Anderson. Devotionals were given by Eleanor Jefferson and Charlotte Greenlees.

This annual gathering has continued for nearly 60 years, since the two churches were joined under one pastoral charge. The number of women attending has dwindled since the first meeting held at the home of the late Mrs. Jim Peacock of Omagh, when 60 women enjoyed a pleasant afternoon together.

The Milton Senior Citizens' Recreation Centre was the topic of a presentation by Les Parkinson, Joan Riddell and Blanche Vella Bonnica. The centre has 247 members and offers classes in stained glass, home repair, line dancing and painting. Trips are also organized for members as well as card games and a drop-in.
