Shoppers Drug Mart 21 Wickens Mechanical 9

Shoppers Drug Mart was led with home runs by Michael Reid and Paul Loader, backed up by a double from Steve Turner and singles from Adam Barfinger, Brian Johnston and Turner played havoc with Wickens Mechanical's defence. Wickens scored three runs in the first but were shut down in the second and third. Their rally in the fourth was not enough to overcome the large lead by Shoppers.

Belamy's 12
Shopsy's 8

Shopsy's fought hard to beat Belamy's but they left too many men stranded on base. The seven men that got left would have turned the defeat into a win. Scott McFarlane had a strong game with a double and single and a walk. Donald Perry had a solid triple and two walks. Belamy's had not scored in the first but put four on the board in the next two innings to tie the score 8-8. They then shut down Shopsy's and added four more runs over the next two innings. Ryan weary scored three times while Kevin May, Clayton Cowton and Kent Peters crossed home twice each.

Shoppers Drug Mart 13 Belamy's 7

Shoppers bats were hot as they clobbered Belamy's. Paul Loader and Mike Reid both hit doubles, batting in two runs each. Reid also added a triple. Steve Turner had a double, single and batted in two runs. A strong start by Belamy's was stalled in the second with runners getting tagged out on base. Kevin May tried to rally the team with a homer in the fourth but poor base running ended the game. Timothy Mahony had a single but was stranded twice. Brian Johnston of Shopper's provided strong pitching and Kevin May of Belamy's showed good fielding.

Shopsy's 17
Remax/Clayton Hackenbrook 13

This match-up featured a lot of heavy hitting. Shopsy's Chris Chluszczak hit a grand slam to tie the score 5-5 in the first inning. Chris added a double. Donald Perry helped with a triple and Jeff Austen, Darren Galipeau, and Sean Swains slammed doubles. Remax kept right in there with a double from Matthew Smith and singles from Smith and Kevin McDonald. Steve Corfield not only had a fine night on the mound but hit a three run homer.

Comic Express 15
Bob's Auto 4

Comic Express jumped ahead in the first inning 5-0 and continued to put the pressure on Bob's Auto with fine fielding. Strong pitching by Comic Express kept Bob's Auto off the bases. Ross Farrant scored three times for Comic Express and Gavin Bow-ness, Kevin Harvey, Steve Wood, Daniel Salvador, Chris Burrows and Neal Murray, all crossed home twice. Scorers for Bob's Auto were Brett Williams, Robert Phillips, John Haure and Jeffrey Chapman.

Belamy's 24
Bob's Auto 16

Belamy's was able to advance their men around the bases without committing any running errors to win the game. Andrew Majka scored three times. For Bob's Auto Chris Mastro crossed home three times, while Jamie Campbell, Doug Mason, Robert Phillips and Matthew Prutala added two runs each.

Canadian Tire 12
Wickens Mechanical 4

Strong defensive play by Canadian Tire was able to shut down Wickens after the second inning. Four walks by Wickens in the third put Canadian Tire ahead and they stayed there. A home run by Marc Robert, a double by Andrew Bartley and a single by David McLean were the only hits for Canadian Tire. Wickens got singles from Jason Munroe and Matthew Bell.

Bob's Auto 12
Shopsy's 11

Matthew Prutala stole home with the winning run after moving to third base on John Rossi's single to give Bob's Auto the win. Jamie Campbell also chipped in with a two-run single. On the mound, Robert Phillips struck out the side in the third inning on his way to six in the game and the win. Jeff Chapman also had a pair of singles to help the offence. For Shopsy's, D.J. McGee had a triple and two singles while Donald Perry had a pair of safes and Jeff Austen had one.

IT WILL TAKE PEOPLE WHO ARE AT HOME IN THE BOARD ROOM TO HELP PEOPLE WHO HAVE NO HOME

The most powerful people in this town probably don't know how powerful they really are. At the United Way, we know the difference you make. We urgently need the support of this community's chief executive and senior corporate officers. Because when you pledge a corporate contribution to United Way, your employees follow that lead with individual donations.

Homelessness, poverty, family violence, isolation of our elderly are only a few of our growing social problems. The United Way has an unparalleled record for efficiency and effectiveness. So supporting the United Way is not only good corporate citizenship, it is also good business. Social problems won't go away by themselves. They need the help of this city's business leaders. Supporting United Way and its funded agencies is the way to help the most. If your company is not already participating, please contact your local United Way and see how you can help.
