

Ontario Home Week September 24th - 30th

The joy of home ownership will be celebrated during Ontario Home Week Sept. 24th to 30th. Sponsored by the Ontario Real Estate Association, the week will feature the theme

"Home ownership: the key to your future." Ontario Home Week is an extension of the successful nine year celebration of Private Property Week.

"Our campaign for strong private property rights and especially the entrenchment of those rights in the Canadian constitution continues," said Ted Mouradian, president of OREA. "Ontario Home Week will be an opportunity to discuss those issues, plus the other issues of concern to homeowners." OREA has printed a poster and a brochure on Ontario Home Week, as well as a series of brochures discussing environmental issues. Copies are available through local real estate boards.

The Ontario Real Estate Association represents 50,000 real estate brokers and salespeople and 48 local real estate boards in Ontario.
