Cutting into the '90s

Noted TV journalist to present high school excellence awards

A woman who has achieved excellence in the field of broadcast journalism will be at Milton District High School next Wednesday to present awards to outstanding students.

Hilary Brown, prominent television journalist and host of CBC at Six will be guest speaker at the school's annual Student Excellence program, October 11 from 8 to 9:30 p.m. During the evening, plaques will be given to those who achieved 80 per cent or higher. It has traditionally been an exciting night at the school.

Organizers anticipate Mrs. Brown's contribution will make this an interesting night.

Among the awards recipients will be Sheri Bowers. The 18-year-old will be given the art award for achieving 90 per cent in advanced-level art. She created the cover for last year's excellence night program. She has sold one of her creations to a fashion designer who reproduced it on the back of a jacket.

The jacket has been on fashion show runways in Japan and is now in a Halifax festival that has been billed 'The Largest Fashion Show Ever'. It is something she says she always wanted to happen.

Sheri wants to pursue art as a career and will major in the subject at university major.

"I can't see myself doing anything else it's been so much a part of my

Sharpshooters

Keiso Motors was transformed into a fall fair on Saturday as owners Faye and Gary Wood brought in pony rides, a dunking booth, hotdogs and even a sharp shooter for the day. Black Bart (left) was on hand to help the Woods sharpen their shooting skills. Visitors also got a glimpse of the 1990 Chryslers.
