Still waters

(TC)—They are all staying at the Wentworth, a highly respectable guest house run by two sisters. The "paying guests" are a motley collection of English eccentrics. Mrs. Bliss, who suffers from arthritis, believes it can be overcome by sheer willpower alone. Mr. Bullington and Mrs. Holders prefer to sit and quietly watch the world go by. Then there is Mr. Kemp, the resident hypochondriac, with his devoted daughter Florence in close attendance.

Colonel Chase (played by Robert Hardy) is fighting fit, a health enthusiast with rather a pompous manner and an eye for Miss Howard (Angela Thorne). She is an accomplished young woman who enjoys the country air and a flirtation with the robust colonel, but is she quite all she seems?
