Toronto connection

been charged in connection with a break and enter of Shoppers Drug Mart in the Milton Mall, said police.

Some of the property involved in the theft was recovered police say. The man has been charged with break and enter with intent, and break and enter and theft. He is being held for a bail hearing.

Cigarettes are hot items for thieves

Halton Regional Police are seeking the public's assistance in the investigation of a number of entries involving the theft of cigarettes.

Tobacco products have become a popular target for criminals throughout the region as well as other jurisdictions. Variety stores are prime targets because of the large stocks of cigarettes kept on hand.

A typical entry took place in late September at the Quik Pik Variety Store at 160 Guelph Street in Georgetown.

During the night of Sept. 26-27 the variety store was entered by removing the lock cylinder from the front door. About $5,000 worth of assorted brands of cigarettes were taken. Some of the cartons had a bright yellow price sticker attached to them.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1,000 for information that leads to an arrest in this case or any other case. Callers are not required to reveal their identities or testify in court. The Crime Stoppers toll free number is 1-800-668-5151.
