Suspect stolen tractor used in theft of trailer and cargo

A trailer carrying $130,000 worth of coils was stolen from Canada Wire on Lawson Road last week.

A tractor, in a nearby industrial complex, was also stolen, but has since been found on Chisholm Drive.

Police believe the thefts, which occurred sometime between the evening of November 14 and the morning of November 15, are connected.

The missing 45-foot, white trailer is numbered 13228 and its licence plate number is C15 413. A total $200,000 has been lost in the incident. Police are investigating.

Auto theft

A car stolen from a Pitfield Road driveway November 14 was found the next day abandoned in a ditch on No. 25 Sideroad.

The grey 1988 Dodge, which the owner left running in the driveway, also hit a number of trees, police say. The investigation is continuing.

Break and enter

A chalet at Kelso Conservation Area was broken into after midnight November 14, but nothing was taken, police say.

After the culprits were unsuccessful at entering through the door, they smashed a window and made their way into the kitchen area. About $300 damage was caused to the door and the window.

Industrial accident

A 64-year-old Hamilton man received leg injuries at Leaver Mushrooms Co. Ltd. on Guelph Line last week when a forklift truck backed into him, police say.

Ski gear stolen

About $645 worth of ski equipment was stolen from a storage area on McGeachie Drive November 3 between 4 to 9 p.m. The door was left unlocked, police say.

Missing phone

Thieves smashed the window of a car parked on Main Street East and stole a cellular phone and its aerial worth about $800. Police say the phone is useless without its base unit which was locked in the trunk of the car. Total damage was $1,000.

Artists at Mountsberg capture wildlife in work

Interested in wildlife art? Having troubles finding the right gift? Then the Mountsberg Wildlife Centre is the place to visit on Sunday, Dec. 3, from noon to 5 p.m., when a Christmas Wildlife Art Show and Sale will be held.

The well-known outdoor education centre will be transformed into a wildlife art gallery featuring works of local artists including Rick Manners, Marc Kasiban, Dennis Kalichuck, Lori Nicholas, Nancy Delecuw, Maureen Shelleau and Andy Nicholas. Both famous and local, Robert Bateman, a former Milton Area resident, will also be represented, as well as Ron Parker, Brent Townsend, Norman Knott, Bev Doolittle and John Seery-Lester. Kevin Callan and Ron Kindt will be displaying their wildlife photography along with a show and demonstration by the award-winning wood carver, Jim Jackson.

The gate fee of $5 a car includes a free draw for several wildlife prints, and some delicious complementary apple cider. There will also be horse drawn wagon rides along the Wildlife Walkway, a one km nature trail with captive birds of prey, elk and bison. To top it all off, there will be a photo session with live birds of prey, so don't forget to bring your camera.

Mountsberg is located on Milborough Line, 5 km west of Cambellville, just south of Hwy 401. For information contact the Halton Region Conservation Authority at (416) 336-1158 during the week, or the Mountsberg Wildlife Centre at (416) 854-2276 on weekends.

CRIME STOPPERS OF HALTON

Police need light shed on daylight convenience store robberies

The Halton Regional Police Force in Oakville are seeking the public's assistance in the investigation of two major thefts from a variety store on Kerr Street.

Both thefts have occurred at the 7-Eleven Store, 570 Kerr Street in Oakville during business hours.

The first theft took place July 11, 1989 sometime between 1:30 and 3 p.m. When the lone clerk became busy with customers, the manager left the office to assist, leaving lottery tickets on the desk. When he returned to his office, he discovered that an unknown suspect had stolen a variety of lottery tickets, valued at more than $1,000.

The second theft occurred October 23, 1989 sometime between 11 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. The suspect entered the store room at the rear of the store while the clerk was occupied with customers. The suspect pried open a metal cabinet and removed 53 cartons of various brands of cigarettes, placing them in a plastic garbage bag and left the store via the aisles. The total value was more than $1,000.

Investigators suspect the same individual is responsible for both thefts.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1,000 for information that leads to an arrest in this case or any other case. Callers are not required to reveal their identities or to testify in court. The Crime Stoppers toll free number is 1-800-668-5151.
