King of the mountain

Dan Daloslo (left) and Don Lane, members of the Glen Eden Hill Patrol, were first on the slopes when Glen Eden opened for skiing Tuesday night. With $1-million of computerized snowmaking machinery newly installed and an early snap of cold weather things are looking up on the slopes.

Merchants unhinged

Pat O'Leary (7) collides with Merchant teammate Jeff Daw early in last Friday's game against Peterborough. Moments later Rob Wilson tripped over the boards on a line change. The Merchants got it together to beat Peterborough 9-3 but lost Tuesday to Oakville 7-2. That story is on page 12.
