

Brent Richardson

Brent Richardson
wins Texas scholarship

A Milton man recently won an academic scholarship for his achievements at a school in Texas.
 For the 1989-90 school year, Brent Richardson received the award from the Northwood Institute in Cedar Hill, Texas and has been named to the President's List for the fall term.
 Mr. Richardson, a senior majoring in automotive marketing, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Richardson of Milton.
 Northwood Institute is a private, accredited co-educational college operated on a non-profit basis and specializes to business management education based on the free enterprise system.
 Bachelor of administration degrees may be obtained in marketing and management. Academic offerings also include two-year programs leading to associate of arts degrees in advertising, business management, fashion/marketing and merchandising as well as hotel and restaurant management.
 Northwood is situated on a 350-acre campus. Other campuses are located in Midland, Michigan and West Palm Beach, Florida.
