DREAM WEAVERS

Melvin's a guy who knows what he wants. So, when he decided to move to Oakville he spent three weekends criss-crossing town and finding a neighborhood that suited his family. Melvin found the area. In fact, he picked his dream street. But, before he could act on the two "For Sale" offers, the signs were changed to "Sold". Melvin was heartbroken. How would he ever see a listing quickly enough to respond with an offer? Finally, a call to an accredited member of the Oakville, Milton and District Real Estate Board led Melvin to an important discovery.

Through the Board's exclusive, computerized Multiple Listing Service, Melvin's real estate representative was able to track up-to-the-minute listings and sales. And, armed with information on Melvin's property preferences, his representative wasted no time zeroing in on appropriate choices for Melvin's family.

If you want the inside track on property throughout our town, contact one of the 700 members of the Oakville, Milton and District Real Estate Board. They specialize in making your dream come true -- quickly.
