

Cops want volunteers

Halton Regional Police are looking for volunteers to serve as auxiliary constables.

Volunteers are selected on a competitive basis and assist patrol officers in a variety of community events as well as accompanying officers in regular patrol functions.

Auxiliary constables undergo a 96-hour training program and upon successful completion are required to volunteer a minimum of 12 hours per month of their time.

The unit, which has been active since January, 1989, is geared toward Halton residents interested in their community and their police force.

Training begins in mid-March. For more information, contact the police human resources centre at 878-5511, ext. 527, or drop into the Milton detachment.

It's a laughing matter

The Bayrischer-Hof restaurant is becoming the comedy capital of Milton.

Some "big names" from the comedy scene are expected to appear at the Steeles Avenue establishment in the near future, according to Richard Oswald, general manager.

The family-owned restaurant and banquet hall began including comedy on its menu 10 months ago — a move which has proved successful.

"The average attendance for the dinner and show package we have offered over the past 10 months has been about 120 people per show," Mr. Oswald said.

Shows are staged once a month and dinner is optional. The next show is tonight with comedian Steve Brinder of City TV's Morning Show and comical magician Rick Bird.

Dinner is served from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. and show time is 9 p.m.

Sheridan College heavy equipment operating course students saved the taxpayers some money recently and probably earned school credit while they were at it. The heavy equipment students did road work along Sixth Line near the campus, thereby saving the town of Milton, and the taxpayers, contractor's rates. By all accounts they did a fine job.
