Chick it out!

Erin Walker doesn't seem too excited about having a spring chicken stuck in her jacket. She met one of the latest batch of chicks hatched at Mountsberg Wildlife Centre during a visit there with her family on Monday.

Temple Emanuel in Cherry Hill, New Jersey was the setting for the wedding of Susan Isabelle and Kevin Daniel on August 6, 1989. Susan is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Harvey Robin of Cherry Hill and Kevin is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Earl McCoy of Acton, Ontario. Rabbi David performed the ceremony.

Maid-of-honour for her sister was Debby Robin and the bridesmaids were Michelle Duclos, Tina Jezzi and Stacey Miles, friends of the bride.

Best man for the groom was Charles Robin, the bride's brother. The ushers were Curtis and Duane McCoy, brothers of the groom and John Hirtle, a friend.

An afternoon dinner and dance at the Sheraton-Poste Inn followed the wedding.

Special guests attending the wedding and dinner were the bride's grandmothers - Mrs. Celia Robin and Mrs. Estelle Benner and the groom's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Dance, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Shauna Cutler and her son Bradley.

Susan and Kevin are now residing in Philadelphia.

The Dining Room

Players bringing murder to the stage

The Milton Players Theatre Group present The Dining Room in May with seven performances.

This play takes place in many different dining rooms throughout various time periods.

The setting is somewhere in upper-class New England, a place where the dining room was truly the focal point of the home and family.

The audience will see themselves in various situations during the play as they laugh and cry along with the characters.

The evening performances will be at the Masonic Hall on Highway 25 on May 4, 5, 10, 11, 12.

A benefit for the Halton Centennial Manor will be held on Wednesday May 9.

Tickets are $8 each and are available at The Paper Factory on Main Street in Milton or at the door. For information call 878-5282.
