"I don't want a fuss. I just want something simple."

We hear that all the time from all kinds of people. They want their passing marked in a way that's simple yet meaningful. One of the simple choices we offer is cremation. It can be inexpensive. It involves a minimum of fuss. And cremation also allows for the widest range of commemorative options possible. Finding out more about pre-arrangement and cremation is simple, too. Just call us, send us the coupon or bring your questions in for a visit.

Please send me more information on cremation.
