Fundraising reading

It was a first for a mini version of the annual University Women's Club book sale at the downtown farmers market. Organizers were pleased with the $575 that was brought in during the half-day sale that moved about 1,500 books. Agnes Ruhl helped man the book booth Saturday morning. Proceeds go to high school scholarships.

Museum to meet its first artist

An artist who specializes in depicting Mennonite culture will be at the Ontario Agricultural Museum on Sunday for the museum's first "Meet the Artist" day.

Peter Eiril Snyder of Waterloo will demonstrate his painting techniques and discuss the development of his career as an artist. A selection of prints and books will be on display in the Gambel Barn and can be ordered at the event which runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Since this event falls on Father's Day, a complimentary poster which features the work of Peter Eiril Snyder will be given to every father in attendance. The museum is located on Tremaine Road just south of Highway 401.
