

Elderly woman victim of purse theft

A 71-year-old Milton woman walking on Nipissing Road had her purse snatched Saturday morning by a youthful passenger who darted out of a van that pulled alongside her.

Police believe the van, driven by another youthful looking accomplice, had been stolen from Toronto.

The suspects are described as black youths between the ages of 14 and 16.

About $150 was stolen.

Roadside hazard

There have been two more incidences of motorists driving on Highway 401 through Milton complaining of objects being thrown at their vehicles from bridges.

Both incidents occurred at the Ninth-Line and Highway 401, last Wednesday and Thursday, and involved the dropping of water balloons. One vehicle had a damaged windshield and the other a dent in the body.

Assaults

A 28-year-old man suffered cuts and bruises after two people broke into a Barton Street room where he was sleeping overnight last Wednesday and assaulted him. The victim ran into a nearby store for assistance.

Police Blotter

A 19-year-old Milton woman, driving a 1988 Mustang through the intersection of Valleyview Cresc. and Laurier Ave., complained that a male approached her car last Thursday afternoon, damaging it.

Police charged a 23-year-old man with property damage after receiving a complaint from a 31-year-old woman that a man had punched a hole through her wall. The man was also charged with assault in connection with another incident.

Crimes and misdemeanors

A woman reported 75 rainbow trout stolen from a stocked fish pond at Fifth Line and 25 Sideroad sometime overnight last Wednesday.

On the afternoon of June 12 a concerned citizen watched as a van drove up to Rotary Park. A male and female got out and put a picnic table, worth about $100, in the vehicle. Police say they have "suspects under investigation."

A concerned citizen watched while more than half a dozen youths congregated around a flag pole on Main Street last Sunday. One of the culprits climbed the pole, removing the Canadian flag.

The Livery convenience store in Campbellville was hit again overnight on Sunday. Suspects, who entered through a rear sliding door, took off with approximately $14,000 worth of cigarettes and lottery tickets.

Vandals inflicted about $400 damage to a 1986 Hyundai car parked at 375 Wheelabrator Way, late Thursday afternoon, smashing a window and scratching the paint.

A window was smashed on a 1984 Ford Escort parked on Main Street last Monday afternoon.

A Blue Box was stolen from 104 Miles St. overnight last Wednesday and the contents dumped on the lawn.

A Scarborough man reported his Pentax camera stolen last Wednesday from a building under construction at Steeles Ave. and Fourth Line.

And finally ...

A Milton woman who lost her wallet in the A&P parking lot around 5:30 p.m. last Thursday afternoon was happy to receive a call a few hours later from an honest citizen who returned it intact.

CRIME STOPPERS OF HALTON

Ronald Michael Kazziuk

Oakville fraud scams prompt warrants

A Canada-wide warrant has been issued by Halton Regional Police for the arrest of Ronald Michael Kazziuk, wanted for several counts of fraud.

It's alleged that in February and March of this year the Oakville area was targeted by the 35-year-old white male. During this period financial institutions were defrauded of more than $5,000.

Originally from the Oakville area, Mr. Kazziuk is wanted on 20 warrants from across Canada, and is also wanted in the United States on fraud charges.

Halton Regional Police have six outstanding warrants for Mr. Kazziuk dating from 1985 that have not been executed. There is now another Canada wide warrant for his arrest involving seven more charges alleging fraudulent activities.

He's described as five feet, seven inches (170 cm.), 149 pounds (68 kg.) with brown hair.

Do you know the whereabouts of this wanted person? If so, you may earn a reward of up to $1,000 in cash. Remember, you do not have to give your name or go to court. Call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-668-5151.
