

Halton Pool surfaces with a pair of slo-pitch wins

After treading water for the initial half of this season, Halton Pool and Patio may finally be stroking their way up in the standings.

The Poolmen scored three runs in the top of the ninth to sneak by St. Clair Paint and Paper 10-9. Jim McCrossin was a perfect four for four and accomplices Brent MacArthur, Dunc "Hot" Currie and Sam Perry contributed nine hits and three runs to the cause.

Bob Thoburn's four hits for St. Clair allowed him to score twice. Jim Mulholland and Bob Hay were good for six hits and three runs for the Paint crew.

Halton Pool then decided to feast on the lowly Dickens by a score of 12-9. Bill Flipping scooped a three run tater in the eighth to lead the power parade. Bob Castrucci, Paul Page and Dennis Cook matched hits with three and runs with one.

A revamped lineup was not enough to save the deeply rooted Dickens team. Randy Carlton and Steve Kindree knocked six hits and scored four runs.

Fat Freddy's may finally have snapped their slump by beating up on Milton Colour and Sound 19-10. Willy Ceelen again showed the way around the basepaths by scoring all four times he batted.

Chris Carlton reached base four times but felt like Gilligan as he was left stranded each time. Bob Cipprick and Larry McPhail both blasted three run homers to put this game on ice for the Fatmen.

Paul Lemmon's report card showed four hits and a pair of runs and Chris Heath hammered a two-run shot in the ninth to close the books on the Soundmen's swing.

Later in the week, Heath and Lemmon were able to keep the ball rolling in an 18-15 win over Re/max. This dominating duo scored seven runs off seven hits. Norm Johnson, Bob Stark and Don Simpson provided 12 hits and nine runs.

The Realtors received home run support from Ron Anderson and Wayne Arnold and Don Lawrence celebrated his first four for four night.

The come from behind story of the week belongs to Re/max Realty in their 21-18 win over Goligors Travel. Trailing 15-6 after seven innings, the Realtors scored 16 runs in the final two frames.

Paul McDermott rode the lead pony in this merry-go-round as he circled the track four times. The entry of Barry Fletcher and Gary Thomas galloped across the finish line for five runs.

Travellers Mike Barbeta, Mark Gelinas, Jay Dugale and Aurele Lanois notched 16 hits and returned home on seven occasions.

Oceanox, in winning their sixth straight, 14-12 over Key Centre created a three way tie atop the Coors Division. Paul Jeans continues to swing a sizzling stick. His five for five night resulted in five runs. Clive Gilray and Steve Beauchamp rattled and rolled around the basepaths an incredible six times.

Bousfield Auto it once again playing hide and seek with the gamesheets. Well there's no way I'm searching for a scoresheet in the back-seat of Bouser's car.

Adam's Apples: Work on the enlarged infield at Omagh is now complete. Teams are reminded to rake the diamond after each game or before each game if Carl Taylor is pitching.

Lacrosse peewees win Orillia tournament

Milton's Realty World peewee lacrosse team won its second tournament of the year last weekend in Orillia by taking all three of its games.

In the opening game against Midland, Jimmy Leworthy and Andrew Hartholt scored five times each with Trevor Petherick adding the final two in a 12-1 win.

Expecting stronger opposition from Arthur in the semifinal, Milton again romped through 11-2 when Arthur took 14 penalties, therefore playing shorthanded for more than half the contest.

Hartholt again scored five goals, Leworthy four and singles were credited to Derek Rockel and Brett Hawley.

The final game pitted Milton against Mimico with Realty World burning up the floor 14-3. Leworthy netted six for Milton, Hartholt chipped in with four, Petherick a pair and Rockel and Mark Dow popped singles.

In the absence of Milton's regular goaltender, Shane McConnell played his first tournament in net. Though he was rarely pressured he made some excellent stops.

In zone play on Wednesday the peewees lost 6-1 to Guelph with Leworthy scoring the lone local goal.

Fast Freight bantams

The young bantam squad, sporting five first year players among its small 12-man roster, lost 7-3 to Elora at Tonelli Sports Centre Thursday.

Jeff Currie potted two and Pat MacDonald managed a single and an assist for Milton. Andrew Bolton covered the net for the home side but was beaten seven times, including four by Elora's Shane May.

The loss put the bantam record at 0-12, though coach Bob Flemming says the season has gone pretty much as expected. He says in truth the team is a 'D' division squad playing in a league of 'A' and 'B' teams. Four the the 12 Milton losses could have gone either way, but the locals were blown out in eight contests.

"The boys have improved tremendously since the first game and they get better with each outing," Flemming said.

The team plays home games July 5, 10, and 12 in preparation for the provincial tournament in Guelph in mid-August.

Milton will play in the 'D' division in the tournament and they expect to be competitive.

Alissa King (left) won the Milton Springers Gymnast of the Year award at their awards banquet Monday night. Vicki Chlisczyk won the Most Dedicated Gymnast, the attendance award and the award for the most new moves mastered in a single season.

Springers hand out awards and bid farewell to retirees

The Milton Springers held their annual Awards Banquet Monday night at Holy Rosary Hall. Alissa King was named Gymnast of the Year.

King, 18, is retiring from competitive gymnastics and plans to go to college. Vicki Chlisczyk won the Most Dedicated Gymnast award, the attendance award and the Happy Face award, which goes to the gymnast who learns the most new moves in a single season.

Heather Coffen joined the 35 Club, which means she scored an average of 8.75 on all four events in a qualifier. Heather also won Most Improved Floor Exercise and Most Improved Competitive gymnast.

Chlisczyk and Coffen are the only two competitive girls returning to their Tyro level.

Sheree Loughlin earned her place in the 35 Club and was chosen Teammate of the Year by her peers. Amy Newell shared the honour for Teammate of the Year as well as getting the Most Improved Bars award. The third member to gain entrance to the 35 Club was Heather Pettingill.

The Most Sportsmanlike trophy went to Lisa Boylan. This is the third year in a row that Boylan has earned the honour. A Tough Luck award was presented to Sara Castrucci, who suffered a back injury which prevented her from competing most of the year. The injury may force her into early retirement.

Joanna MacSween won the Most Improved Vault Award and Amanda Young won the Most Improved Beam and the Competitive Dance trophy. The dance award for pre-competitive went to Shawna Turner and she tied with Nancy Coffen for the First Kip award. Nancy also won the top pre-comp one position.

Top pre-comp Two went to Jill McSween and the top Tiny was Alissa Adams. Stephanie Scarpino earned the Most Improved pre-competitive.

Megan Anderson, Lori Cyr, Shannon Gwilliam, Fiona Silcock and Carion Sparks-Austin were presented with certificates of recognition. Boylan, Castrucci, Loughlin, King, Newell, and Pettingill are all retiring this year and will be greatly missed by the club.

Along with Brigitte McCann who retired earlier this year, all the retirees presented coach Janet Campbell with an appreciation plaque in recognition of the years of coaching effort she has put in. The Springers also bid farewell to coaches Joanne Keyworth, Katrina Sipkes and Alissa King.

Soccer school will feature two CSL pros

Milton Youth Soccer Club is organizing a soccer school July 3-6 at Thompson Road Field.

The program will be run by two professional players from Kitchener Spirit of the Canadian Soccer League at no cost to participants. Funds for the school are being raised through the Friendship Tournament which is sponsored by the Optimist Centre.

Players 9-16 years old are eligible and there will be a special clinic for goalkeepers. Registrants should call Ozzie Pento at 878-8883. There will be about 35 participants in each of five groups.

Nassagaweya doubles champs

Joyce Plachutta (left) and Lori Hand are the 1990 winners of the Nassagaweya Tennis Club doubles championship held in conjunction with the annual family barbecue. Donna Dulmetra and Gary Fincham were the consolation winners. Thirty people participated in the tourney of the 350 members. The club's Drop in Doubles begins Monday, July 9 and is scheduled every Monday thereafter until the end of the season. Club member Cindy Lunau says the Monday doubles is very informal. Club memberships are still available for $75 per family.
