Scouts honoured for winning top award
Seven Milton Scouts recently received the highest award the organization can bestow — the Chief Scout's Award.
Scouts and Venturers from Halton Region gathered at Burlington City Hall for a presentation ceremony attended by parents, relatives and friends. Numerous Scouting and community officials also participated.
The Scouts received their awards for earning badges in several different areas, devoting a minimum of 50 hours to community service, and for demonstrating leadership within their peer groups.
Each boy received a framed certificate signed by the Governor General of Canada who is officially the Chief Scout of Canada.
In the past, the award was known as the Queen's Scout Award.
