

Cigarettes target of series of store thefts

The Livery convenience store in Campbellville was hit with its fourth break-in in less than two months overnight Sunday.

The prime target of each haul has been cigarettes, and Halton Regional Police detective Mike Kingston said this follows a trend occurring throughout southern Ontario in which variety stores are being increasingly targeted for cigarettes.

Entry was gained by the culprits standing on their vehicle and then removing steel bars and a window pane.

Once inside they removed cigarettes and other confectionary items worth more than $4,000.

Police believe the four robberies are connected:

Charges laid

• Two Milton teenagers — one 18 years of age and the other 19 — face break and enter charges in connection with a break-in at 280 Randall Crescent on July 1.

Police laid an additional charge of breach of probation on the older teen. The charges were laid July 12.

• A 31-year-old Toronto man faces theft charges in connection with an incident at a used auto parts business at Sixth Line and Five Sideroad.

Police say a man entered the yard and tried to cart away a number of items, including hubcaps and a thermostat worth about $40.

Damage inflicted

A black 1984 Mustang, parked at Bob's Auto Service on Commercial Street, had the paint scratched sometime overnight on July 11. Damage was estimated at $400.

A pellet gun was used to shoot out four windows and a skylight at a vacant house on Highway 25, just north of Derry Road, causing more than $2,000 damage sometime between July 2 and 7.

Stolen property

A break-in at R.N. Colville on Lawson Road overnight July 9 netted thieves about $300 worth of goods. Entrance was gained by smashing a window.

CRIME STOPPERS OF HALTON

Thieves walk away with boots

Walking a mile in another person's shoes may be sound wisdom, but it's certainly not very wise to steal the shoes.

Halton Regional Police are looking for culprits who broke into a Georgetown store on June 27, stealing six pairs of boots worth more than $300.

Thieves gained entrance by smashing a window and targeted the 'Doc Martin' boots. The store also sells bikes, skateboard equipment and shoes.

A previous break-in attempt on June 14 was unsuccessful.
