Candidate forum on environment

An 'Environmental Forum' featuring the Halton North riding candidates in the upcoming provincial election has been organized by POWER (Protect Our Water and Environmental Resources).

The Tuesday, Aug. 21 event gives candidates an opportunity to present the environmental platforms of their respective parties. The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. at Sacre-Coeur Hall on Guelph Street just west of the Mill Street traffic light in Georgetown.

Horses show off

Milton Fair Grounds will hold two quarter horse shows this weekend.

Organized by Area 3 Quarter Horse Inc., the shows Saturday and Sunday include a full slate of classes. The action will begin at 8 a.m.

Winners will receive awards donated by local sponsors and merchants will be on the grounds selling and repairing horse-related items.

For information, call (519) 289-5526. Refreshments will be available.
