Omagh ladies meet Milton style

The ladies groups of Omagh Presbyterian Church held the August meeting with a picnic at Hornby Park.

Following a fine first course, dessert was a large delicious birthday cake made by Mrs. Ailie Brown for four members with special days in August.

A brief business meeting followed. The ladies were happy to welcome Mrs. Fred Amme back after a lengthy illness.

Readings were given by Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Alma Watson and a fun and social time was enjoyed by the 12 members who attended.

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Omagh friends were shocked to learn about the death of Edgar Marshall who passed away suddenly Aug. 5 while on vacation. Sincere sympathy is extended to his brothers Cameron and George Marshall as well as many nieces and nephews.

This correspondent wishes to thank the many friends for their cards, good wishes and expressions of kindness on the occasion of her 80th birthday Aug. 6. Appreciation is extended to her family for hosting an afternoon tea at Boyne Centre. It will long be remembered.

The following was written by Kay Wilson:

About 200 friends, relatives and neighbours attended the 80th birthday party for Mrs. Ella Patterson.

Ella's family hosted the afternoon which included her daughter Joanne and her husband Aden Bauman of Elmira, and son Cecil and his wife Marion Patterson of Milton. She is blessed with five grandchildren, Michael and Barry Bauman, and Katie, Graham and Steven Patterson.

Certificates of congratulations were presented by Halton North MPP Walt Elliot on behalf of Ontario Premier David Peterson, and Ward 1 Councillor Brian Penman who represented Milton Mayor Gord Krantz.

Following the afternoon reception, a buffet supper was enjoyed by the family, close relatives and friends. A silk flower arrangement was among the gifts presented to her.

Son Cecil chaired a short program and called on his sister Joanne who reminisced on her mother's activities throughout the years. She's been involved with the Halton Farm Safety Council, the Hornby Women's Institute, Omagh Presbyterian Church, and has written this column for many years.

Best wishes were also extended by Bill Brander of Norval, Rick Rowan and his wife Joy of Calgary, and brother Henry Peacock.

GO AHEAD — TAKE A GOOD LOOK!

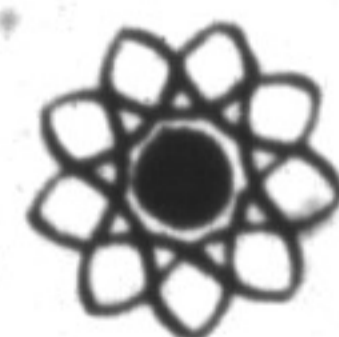

Don't be afraid of putting God's Word to the test. It measures up to the closest scrutiny. No part of it has ever been successfully disputed. It is truth, and unlike the "facts" we tend to surround ourselves with, truth never changes. At Omagh Church of Christ, we preach from God's Word exclusively. That eliminates a lot of problems. There are no flaws in His Word that require revision.
