Community Notebook

Caribbean Night: Take a trip to the Caribbean islands without leaving Milton on Saturday, Sept. 15 at John Tonelli Sports Centre. A trip for two to Jamaica, donated by Bruce Hood's Milton Travel can be won with the purchase of a $15 dance ticket. Proceeds from the fourth annual Caribbean Night will help buy equipment for Milton District Hospital. Tickets are available at Bruce Hood's Milton Travel, The Champion, Brancier Jeweller or by calling Ron Furik at 878-2365 or Jim Powers at 878-6742. The event kicks off at 7 p.m.

Something for Girls: Canadian Girls in Training (CGIT) will meet Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9 at St. Paul's United Church, Main Street, room 305. All girls between the ages of 12 and 16 are welcome to join. The annual membership fee is $20. For more information call Noreen Whyte at 878-4552 (evenings).

Don't Be Alone: People caring for aging relatives can get support through a group that meets at Halton Centennial Manor the fourth Monday of the month. The "I'm not alone" support group focuses on the needs of the caregiver. Discussion topics include changing roles and responsibilities, depression, grief and loss, stress management and communication skills. To find out more call Lauraine Andrews at 878-4141, ext. 167.

Prenatal for Teens: Free prenatal classes designed for teenagers and pregnancy counselling are available on an ongoing basis. The Halton Children's Aid Society and the regional Public Health Department offer these services to teenagers in Halton. For information call Susan Stuart at 844-5502 or the Public Health Department at 878-7261.

Volunteers Needed: Young Parent Support Service requires volunteers to provide support and information to young pregnant women. The role of the volunteer in this service is to enable program participants to make informed decisions regarding their future life choices. If interested contact Susan Stuart at 844-5502.

Back to School: Pregnant teens can continue their education knowing that child care will be provided while she works toward high school credits. Young mothers have access to child care while working at their own pace toward credits. TEAM is a program that also provides staff support to the new mother working toward a high school diploma. Call Anne Day at 333-3731 and learn more.

Suzuki Method: The Oakville Suzuki Association will hold a parent information meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 18 at 8 p.m. at 216 Third Line, Oakville. Interested parents and children are invited to a season opening concert on Friday, Sept. 14 at Glen Abby Public School at 7 p.m. The Suzuki approach to music instruction involves training the ear of the student as well as involving one or both parents in individual weekly lessons and monthly group classes.

Women of Action: The first meeting of the year of Women of Halton Action Movement (WHAM) will be on Thursday, Sept. 6.

Hundreds of people gathered on Main Street to witness the Steam Era parade.

Fred Stock of Guelph, with his 1937 B.R. John Deere, participated in the tractor pull.

Norm Wright of Kilbride displays the smaller model of the machine behind him.
