THE DOWNTOWN MILTON MIRROR

A Downtown Milton Weekly Report On Community News, Views & Happenings

J & L Designs,

202 Main Street,
owned by

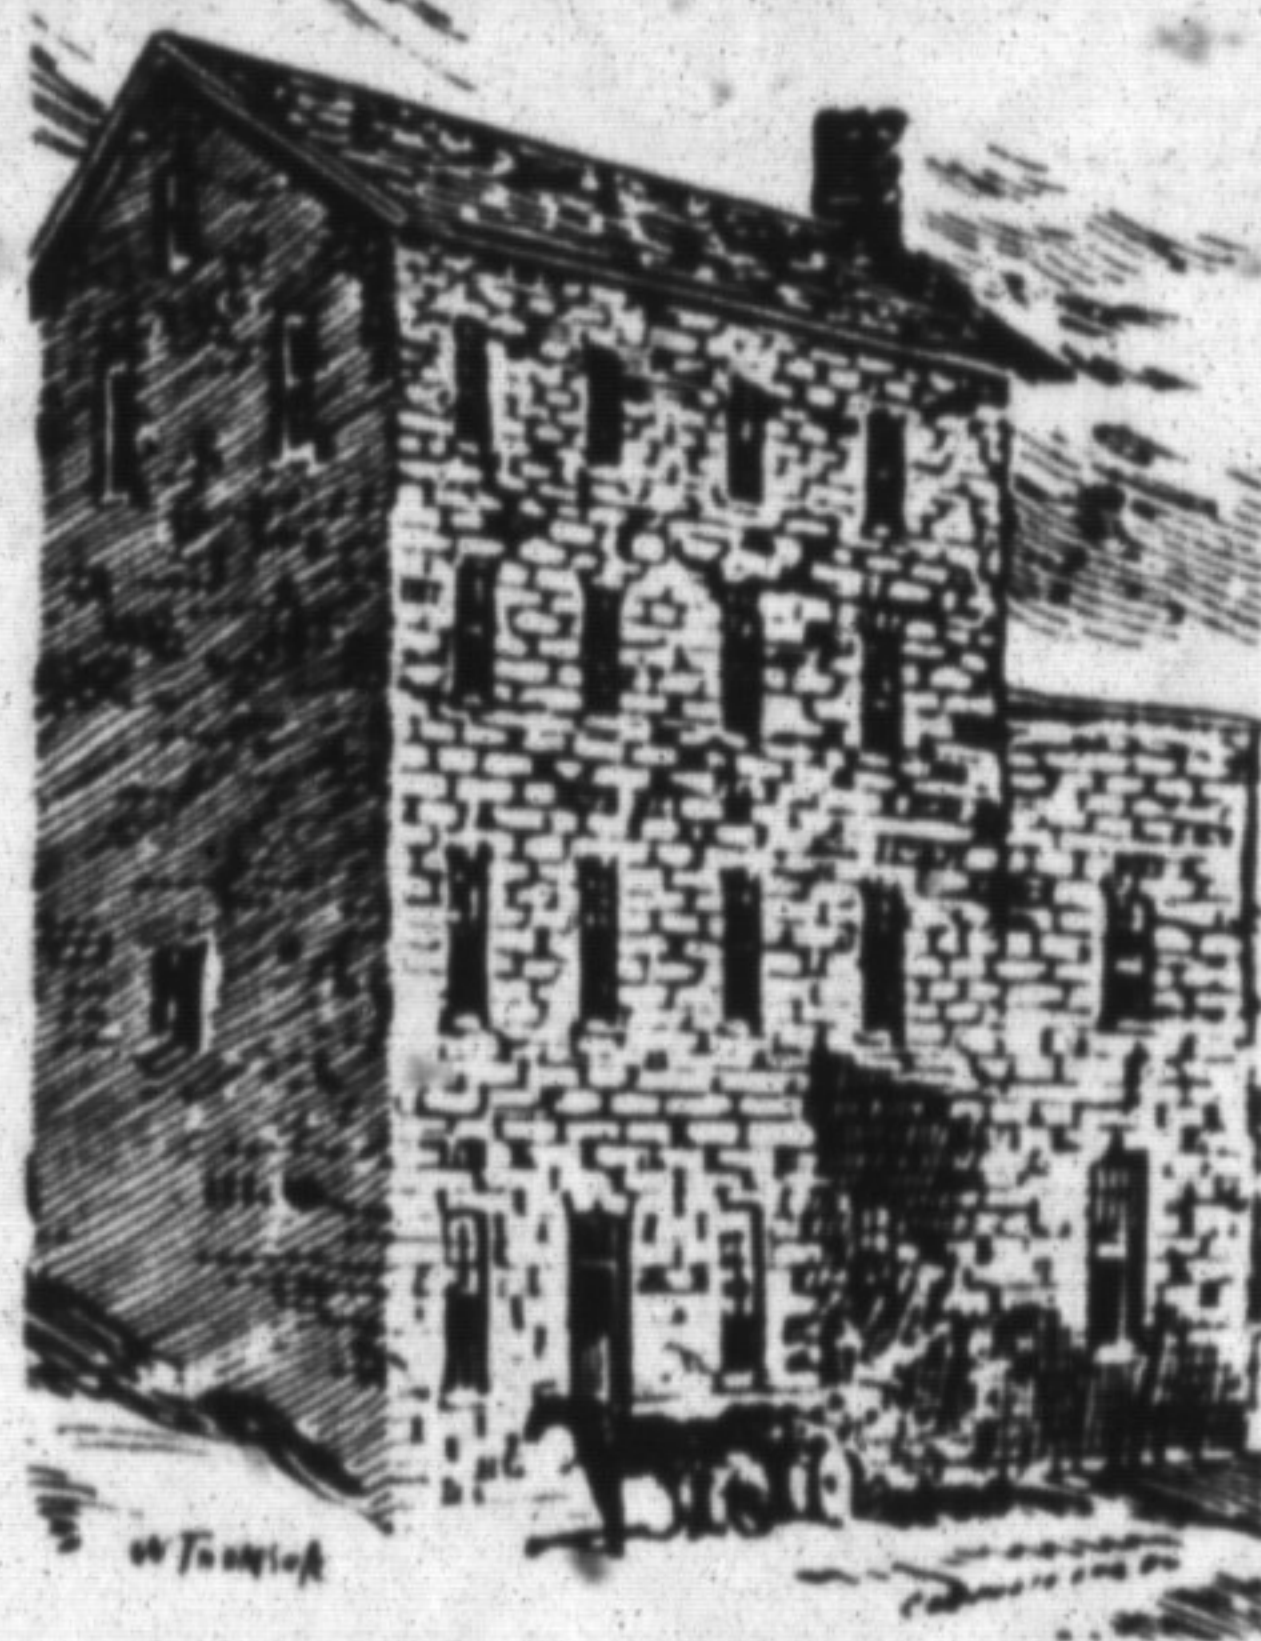

Jon & Lynda Leaver
will be opening on Monday,
September 17th.

The store will feature unique accent pieces for the home, ranging from antiques to art decor to oriental.

Lynda promises there will be something for everyone plus her own decorating consulting service.

You are invited to drop by and browse.

...and the Mill comes tumbling down...

Country Feelings, 4 Martin Street,

will change ownership this month.
Anita McCaw has bought the 8 year old business from founder Lynda Hayes.

The merchandise style and quality will remain the same with some new features, like made to order kitchen accessories, thrown in. Anita will continue to provide the individual service you have come to expect.

Welcome Anita, Best Wishes Lynda.

FACE IN THE CROWD Contest Rules

- 1) Photo will appear in each Friday Downtown edition as usual.
- 2) The photo will then be at the Chamber table on the following Saturday morning. (In front of the Princess Restaurant)
- 3) The person who's face is circled will be asked to call the DBIA office and then go to the Chamber table at the market for identification with the photo.
- 4) The prize will then be given.
We are sorry for any upset caused due to a lack of verification of photo to winner. With any luck there won't be too many doubles photographed.
