Consolation Game

This was perhaps the most surprising and exciting game of the senior division. D & S Signs, who had an excellent season, placing first in the division, and Optimists, (3rd) are to be congratulated on providing an excellent game. Optimists took the lead quickly, leading by six at one point. D & S Signs shook it off in using the defensive block or Virginia Young (MVP), Spring Lacourse, and Danielle Hull to shut down Optimists in the fourth inning, and bats flared to finally end in a tie at the end of the regulation innings. A sixth inning provided excitement with D & S's Spring Lacourse hitting the second last batter home run which edged out the young Optimists.
