Missioner will speak at church

A man held in a Japanese prison camp when he was a boy will speak at St. George's Anglican Church Friday.

Dr. David Michell, Canadian director of Overseas Missionary Fellowship, will discuss his experiences at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Michell is a life-long missionary and a convincing speaker.

The event is part of a missionary conference hosted by the Guelph Line and Derry Road church Oct. 12-14.

On Saturday, a family breakfast, served by the men of St. George's, will be held at the church at 8:30 a.m. The cost is $2. Workshops on timely mission topics and programs for children will also be included.

In the evening Saturday at 6:30, teenagers will meet for pizza, exciting music and a challenging message.

Sunday will feature a service in the church's new fellowship hall. The 10 a.m. event will once again include Mr. Michell as well as musical groups.

Everyone is invited to attend, regardless of their denomination.
