All set for tour

The O'Reilly's 139-year-old home on Tremaine Road is one of five in the fundraising tour of Milton homes. The tour runs from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and tickets at $10 each are available at Country Feelings, J & L Designs and Harris Stationery downtown and at Milton Mall stores including Panhandler and Hallmark Card Shop.

Stolen car struck by train Friday morning

A collision involving a train and a car early Friday morning resulted in only moderate damage and no injuries.

The 1988 Honda Prelude, stolen a few days earlier from Milton Honda, was parked partially on the Canadian Pacific tracks, near Fifth Line and Derry Road, and struck by a westbound train at about 4 a.m.

Police report $2,000 damage to the car and no damage to the train.

Milton Honda also reported a $1,200 stereo stolen along with the car.

Runaway

A police-foot chase concluded a bizarre incident in which ambulance attendants were trying to help a man who had passed out.

Called to the corner of Steeles and Ontario streets, ambulance personnel said the victim revived just as they arrived at about 1 p.m. Monday afternoon.

A short discussion ensued and the victim promptly ran off.

Police, who were also called, caught sight of the suspect on Steeles Avenue and began a foot race that took them through the Maplehurst Correctional Centre grounds, across Highway 401 and eventually to the nearby industrial park.

A 29-year-old Toronto male is charged with possession of narcotics.

Crimes and misdemeanors

• An unsuccessful attempt was made to break into Univet Pharmaceuticals on Steeles Avenue about 9:30 p.m. Nov. 13. Culprits pushed out a window-mounted air conditioner but fled without gaining entry.

• A resident of First Line in Moffat reported his mail box damaged by a passing vehicle.

- Several pieces of jewellery, including a silver charm bracelet with 25 charms, a silver ID bracelet with initial 'E', and a pinkie ring with initial 'C'.
