Country store demolished in Drumquin

The Drumquin Country Store, which has been closed since September, became history Friday. Workers demolished the store and garage to make way for something new.

The store was built in the 1940s by Ralph and Dorothy Featherston. It was a busy place of business for many years. The store will be missed by the community.

MILTON-MISSISSAUGA-TORONTO IMPROVED WEEKDAY TRAIN SERVICE

Our weekday rush-hour service on the Milton rail line always was a hit with GO riders. In fact, it was so popular we had requests to play it more often. So we added midday and evening times to our schedule and almost doubled our service!

Now you don't have to drive to a Lakeshore Station to take GO outside rush hour. If you live anywhere near the Milton, Meadowvale, Streetsville, Erindale, Cooksville, Dixie or Kipling GO Stations, it means we're really playing your song. Take GO to class or to shop. Enjoy the downtown entertainment. GO to the Dome.

New improved service.

Money-saving ticket options and fare integration, too. At GO Transit, we're in tune with your needs.
