

Lifestyle

Wednesday Nov. 28, 1990

Community Notebook

Fire Sale: Proceeds from a sale of Christmas crafts will go toward the restoration of two antique fire engines. The first annual sale sponsored by Milton Fire Department runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday (Dec. 1, 2) at Central Fire Hall, 405 Steeles Ave. Interested vendors should contact Eileen at 875-2943.

Christmas Fiesta: Santa Claus will visit with children aboard an antique streetcar (circa 1912) from noon to 2:30 p.m. during the Halton County Radial Railway Ladies' Annual Christmas Fiesta. The event includes free rides for children on the trains as well as a sale of food, gifts and books. The fiesta is slated for Sunday Dec. 2 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The museum is located on Guelph Line, 16 km north of Highway 401.

Music of the Season: Milton Choristers continue their musical traditions this season with two concerts in December. The first is this Sunday (Dec. 2), 7 p.m. at St. Paul's United Church. Conductor Patricia Phillips will lead the choir through selections by Vaughan Williams, Randall Thompson, Benjamin Britten's A Ceremony of Carols and Vivaldi's Gloria. Tickets cost $10 and $8 for seniors and students. The annual Family Christmas Concert will start at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 9 at the church. The audience will have their chance to sing carols during a portion of the concert that will feature the music of handbells. Children under 12 will be admitted free and tickets cost $5. To find out more call 878-2422.

Art Goes Wild: While local artists demonstrate their work, the wildlife that is often their subjects will be watching at Mountsberg Wildlife Centre's third annual Christmas Wildlife Centre. Several live birds of prey will be displayed during the show from noon to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 2. The wildlife centre is located on Milborough Line, just west of Campbellville. Call 854-2276 for more information.

Choral Recital: Traditional Christmas music performed by the Tudor Singers with readings by Dr. Frank Morgan will be featured at Ebenezer United Church on Sunday, Dec. 2, 7:30 p.m. Proceeds from the concert will go to the church's building fund. Tickets are $6 for adults, $3 for children and families pay $15 at the door or in advance by calling 853-3772 or (519) 856-4849.

Foot Care: The Victorian Order of Nurses will be in town for their regular foot care clinics twice next month. The first will be at Harmony Court apartments on Tuesday, Dec. 4 from 1:30 to 4 p.m., followed by a clinic at Bruce Street Apartments on Tuesday, Dec. 18 from 1:30 to 4 p.m. The cost is $15. For information and to make an appointment call 827-8800.

Christmas Social: An old fashioned gift auction will be the highlight of the University Women's Club Christmas Social at the Bayrischer Hof, Thursday, Dec. 6 at 6:30 p.m. Women with degrees from an accredited college or university are invited to join.

Wintery weather welcomes Santa

Miltonians love a parade, especially when it includes Santa Claus (top left). (Clockwise from top right) Keith MacKay and son Scott were part of an appreciative crowd. Mr. Baker of Baker's Dozen was one of the participants. Mark Dills and fellow Acton Citizens Band members braved the cold on Sunday. Bishop Reding high school band were in tune for the event. Discount Car and Truck Rental entered this mobile clown. The skirl of bagpipes welcomed parade goers.

Photos by John Warren

NOW'S THE TIME TO BE COMPOSED

From concept to final product the Canadian Champion In-House Desk-Top Publishing Centre is ready to produce:

- Flyers • Magazines • Catalogues • Reports • Programs • Menu's
- Promotional Material • Camera Ready Art Work • Resumes

Call us at 878-2341

Ask about our extensive flyer distribution system.