

CHRISTMAS WOULD BE BETTER IF . . .

CWT-1 The Canadian Champion, Wednesday, December 19, 1990

BEST CHRISTMAS

Christmas would be better if everybody could see Santa Claus. Well, one Christmas day everybody said that they saw Santa. My wish came true. I even saw Santa. He has a long white beard, he even has red cheeks and a fat tummy. He left lots of presents. Our stockings are full of stuff. That was the best Christmas ever.

IF SOMEONE CARED

Christmas would be better if everybody had Christmas Eve and everybody celebrated the traditions more often. Christmas would be better if someone cared. Christmas would be better if everyone was kind. Christmas would be better if everyone knew about it.

Jon Marshall
Grade 3, Holy Rosary

RADICAL

Christmas would be better if we could eat as much as we could on Christmas Eve and get gold. I like Christmas. It's amazing you can rip open awesome presents. The coolest part would be staying up until 3:30 in the morning and putting on lots of rap music. All your friends will be there. I like Christmas. It's radical.

Lee Furness
Grade 3, Holy Rosary

GIVE LOVE

Christmas would be better if everybody would gather around and sing Christmas carols together and give out love to each other. Be nice too and give joy to each other. Let there be peace on earth!

Matthew Shullst
Grade 3, Holy Rosary

ICE FISHING

Christmas would be better if I lived in the North Pole. I'd get more Christmas presents and toys. I'd also go ice fishing with my Dad all the time and feed all the penguins. I'd go and visit Santa Claus and his reindeer and get candy from him.

Grade 3, J.M. Denyes

ROCK 'N' ROLL CHRISTMAS

If all the Christmas carols were rock, then Christmas would be my favourite season. I like rock songs.

Christmas would be better if . . .

Loving

Ben McGovern, Grade 1, Holy Rosary

For instance, Rick Ashley and Michael Jackson. I would do anything if all the Christmas carols were rock songs. I could tape it on my ghetto blaster and wipe out one of my sister's stupid tapes. Wait until she gets a load of that. I'll just be hoping.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas would be better if the wars stopped and everybody came home for Christmas, and if everybody had a Merry Christmas and a nice turkey dinner.

Budd Hall
Grade 4, J.M. Denyes

NEW KIDS

Christmas would be better if Santa brought more toys for poor people, and if Santa could bring New Kids on the Block to my house.

Natasha Nowaks
Grade 2, St. Peter's

NO GUNS

Christmas would be better if all the wars would stop forever and if all criminals were arrested and all guns are destroyed and if the world would love forever.

James Leather
Grade 3, St. Peter's

NO DRUNK DRIVERS

Christmas would be better if all the people could have a safe Christmas, and all the homeless had a home. Plus, all the drivers not be drunk. For Christmas to be perfect, all the people in the Persian Gulf would be home for the holidays. That's how Christmas would be better. I hope that this will come true.

Adam Finkbeiner
Grade 4, J.M. Denyes

WARM FIRE

Christmas would be better if there were no wars, and if everyone had a home and a Christmas dinner. If children would realize what they have, some of the commercials would disappear. Christmas would be better if everyone had a warm fire, and if people thought of others before themselves.

Erin Wemy
Grade 4, J.M. Denyes

SUMMER CHRISTMAS

Christmas would be better if it were in the summer. Instead of playing in the snow, people would be playing in the sand.

It would be better if everyone's living room was decorated with a palm tree. Santa could deliver presents in shorts and a T-shirt.

Children would come to my door singing Christmas carols: "Dashing through the water on my one horse powered jet ski... Frosty the snowman was a puddle on the ground... I'm dreaming of a green Christmas."

As I stand by the door listening with ice tea in my hand, I'm thinking of when the man's going to come and fix my air conditioner. I can just see it now, but at the moment I'll be content with the cold and snow because it's not the weather which puts people in the Christmas spirit.

(Besides, maybe Santa will give me a trip to Hawaii.)

Erin O'Brien
Grade 8, Holy Rosary

WHITE CHRISTMAS

Christmas would be better if there were no wars. Christmas would be better if everybody could be together on Christmas Day. Christmas would be better if everybody could have presents. Christmas would be better if everybody had food and money, had homes, if nobody was sick, and if it was a white Christmas.

Ashley Ferriman
Grade 2, J.M. Denyes

10,000 SANTAS

Christmas would be better if there was 10,000 Santa's, more happiness, and more money.

Brad Frost
Grade 2, J.M. Denyes

THE WHOLE FAMILY

Christmas would be better if you could sleep in or if we got more presents or if Christmas was in September or if all of the family could come.

Raymond Kisman
Grade 2, J.M. Denyes

BIG TURKEY

Christmas would be better if there were longer holidays and if there was a lot more snow so I could go snowboarding and skiing. Christmas would be better if the turkeys were bigger and presents were cheaper to buy. And Christmas would be better if all the people in the world had great Christmases.

Clayton Cowton
Grade 6, Sam Sherratt

LOTS OF SNOW

Christmas would be better if there was a lot of snow and if everybody got a turkey dinner and presents. For the people who go to school, they could get two months off. If there were lots of snow, people could go for a sleigh ride on Christmas Day. If people listen to Christmas music, then everybody would be happy.
