

Spartans sweep prior to exams

Last Thursday was a busy day for Spartan sports teams. The midget boys basketball team and the senior boys team defeated Acton and the junior girls volleyball team knocked off their Acton counterparts.

The midgets downed Acton 49-30 win a solid team effort which resulted in game control from the tip-off. Chris Browning led E.C. Drury with 13 points. Jay Black chipped in with 12 and Graham Dugale had eight.

The seniors claimed a decisive 87-46 win over their Acton counterparts. Dan Medlar led the way for Drury with 19 points. Scott Wallace and Dan Smoulders each had 16 while Kevin O'Donnell hit on 14 and Garth Moore contributed 13.

In junior girls volleyball action the Spartans played three outstanding games to sweep Acton. They travel to Burlington to play in the BurBear Tournament.

Exams temporarily halt sporting action in the high school circuit but things pick up again in two weeks.
