Get something for nothing at Winter Carnival

The Milton Winter Carnival is coming back in style. Most events at the Town-run festival, which takes place Saturday, Feb. 8 at Memorial Arena on Thompson Road, will be free to the public. Opening ceremonies will get the action underway at 1 p.m., followed by a free skate until 1:30 p.m. On your way in, grab a bite to eat in the Memorial Arena parking lot. The Milton Optimist Club will have food available from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Then, from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., children can take advantage of games and races put on by the YMCA and McDonald's Restaurant, as well as a puppet show (upstairs at the Lions Club Hall) by the Milton

Public Library. An ice sculpture demonstration by Canadian Tire will be ongoing from 1:30 to 4 p.m. The Milton Skating Club is up next with an ice show from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m., followed by a free skate until 4:15 p.m. Crafts for kids, co-sponsored by the Milton Children and Youth Centre, and crafts for adults, organized by Jenmar Country Comforts, will take place from 3 to 5 p.m. And, of course, what would a carnival be without face-painting (organized by CHERISH Parent-Child Centre), available throughout the afternoon. Swimmers will enjoy a free dip at the Milton Leisure Centre from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, 2 to 4 p.m., and 7 to 9 p.m. Tickets are available at the Main Street centre until February 2. The day-long Snowpitch (snowball tossing) Tournament at the Thompson Road baseball diamonds kicks off the carnival at 9:30 a.m. To get involved, find 10 people to form a team. The entry fee is $50.

Or, get a team together for the 6 p.m. broomball tournament which will be followed by a free public dance put on by the Optimist Club in the Lions Hall. To enter a team in either tournament, also sponsored by the Optimist Club, contact Barb Kwade at Town Hall (878-7211, ext. 188).
