

Your Week Ahead Horoscope

Forecast Period: Feb. 9-15

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 20): If you are about to move into a new house or apartment, this could be the right time for it. The ideas you have now about interior decorations will be blessed with success. Don't panic if you hear some bad news mid-week — your emotional equilibrium will see you through, despite the anxiety.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21): You may get great pleasure this week in making new friends at work, and your personality could make the week enjoyable for them as well. It is your nature to make close friends, and the stars are focused heavily on this right now. You could find yourself having to deal with a troublesome infant by yourself one evening this week.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21): Matters of the heart seem to be focused on this week, and you may find that there are opportunities for giving affection and friendship which will be returned. Make sure that you do not rebuff the offer by taking it too lightly, as it may be very tentative.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22): There are a number of factors which will help you in your more serious moments as you're searching for a key to your career problems, specifically towards the end of this week. Try to find time for some parties where you will have access to influential people who may prove to be helpful in the future.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 23): You might find yourself involved in worthy, charitable work this week. If you find the work too difficult to handle on your own, it may be a good idea to enlist the help of others.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Problems at home concern you to such an extent that your performance at work is beginning to suffer. Luckily, this should be only a passing phase. Nevertheless, it ought to be kept in mind that your standing and reputation at work is being reviewed.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 23): A friend's advice and helpful suggestions may help you to reorganize some aspects of your home or travel routine to your advantage; take some time to consider how best to repay this kindness. Adventure and excitement late in the week could prove to be quite expensive.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22): The weekend is one of the best for romantic affairs! Now is the time to look for progress towards deepening a loving relationship — you may be approaching a permanent situation. The stars indicate that there may be trouble brewing at work, so be on your guard.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21): An unexpected chance to buy something you've always wanted could come your way toward the end of the week, but you find yourself temporarily short of cash. A little creative juggling of your finances should help.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 20): You could be asked out for an evening over the weekend and find yourself pleasantly surprised at the company. Work projects slow down. On the whole, the week's a buoyant time in domestic and social matters.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 18): A natural inclination to search for new pastures may well conflict with your domestic duties this week but, if you can come to terms with your restlessness, then cooperation in a family project could result in something wonderful for the future.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): It may surprise you to be asked to act as a referee or arbitrator in some sport this weekend, and you could find that your popularity won't be enhanced by the fact that you're called upon to make some decisions which could prove controversial. Right now, finances are up and down.

Your Birthday This Week — The Next 12 Months:

This year will be a very productive one if you stay focused. You really don't need to socialize every night; start working on those projects you've been putting off. A long-time problem will finally be resolved, and will open many doors. A new relationship will form this spring; it could be one that will last a lifetime!
