

What makes Milton marvelous?

It took no arm twisting to encourage staff at The Champion to contribute to a list of things that make Milton marvelous. There are so many positive aspects to this community the list could go on and on . . . but we're leaving that to our readers.

The Champion will publish your additions to the list in April. At that time you'll be asked to share your good ideas about Milton and the results will appear in print.

Here's some inspiration:

✓ Milton Leisure Centre which opened in this month

Mike Fullarton rides the wind at Kelso Conservation Area, one of Milton's recreational gems.

Milton's class fall fair has something for all ages as Daniel and Deanna Solao discovered last September at the midway.

✓ Glen Eden Ski Area on our doorstep

✓ Wide-open rural spaces in close proximity to Toronto

✓ Mountsberg Wildlife Centre's Maple syrup program

✓ Mill Pond — picturesque setting in the heart of town

✓ Historic homes restored with care

✓ Ontario Agricultural Museum

✓ Nurses at Milton District Hospital who still remember you and say 'hi' after helping to deliver your baby 13 years ago.

✓ Halton Region Museum

✓ Kelso Conservation Area's reservoir, beach, water sport facilities and picnic grounds

✓ Terrific people

✓ Niagara Escarpment as a scenic backdrop and natural habitat

✓ Main Street with its great shops and friendly merchants

✓ Town hall, a showpiece which has won architectural awards

✓ Canada Day celebrations

✓ Rotary Park outdoor pool

✓ Crawford Lake Indian village

✓ Blue Box recycling program

✓ Milton Players Theatre Group

✓ Milton Fall Fair

✓ Pick-your-own strawberry farms

Canada Day is marked by celebrations at Rotary Park.

✓ Milton Choristers

✓ Home of the annual Steam Era reunion

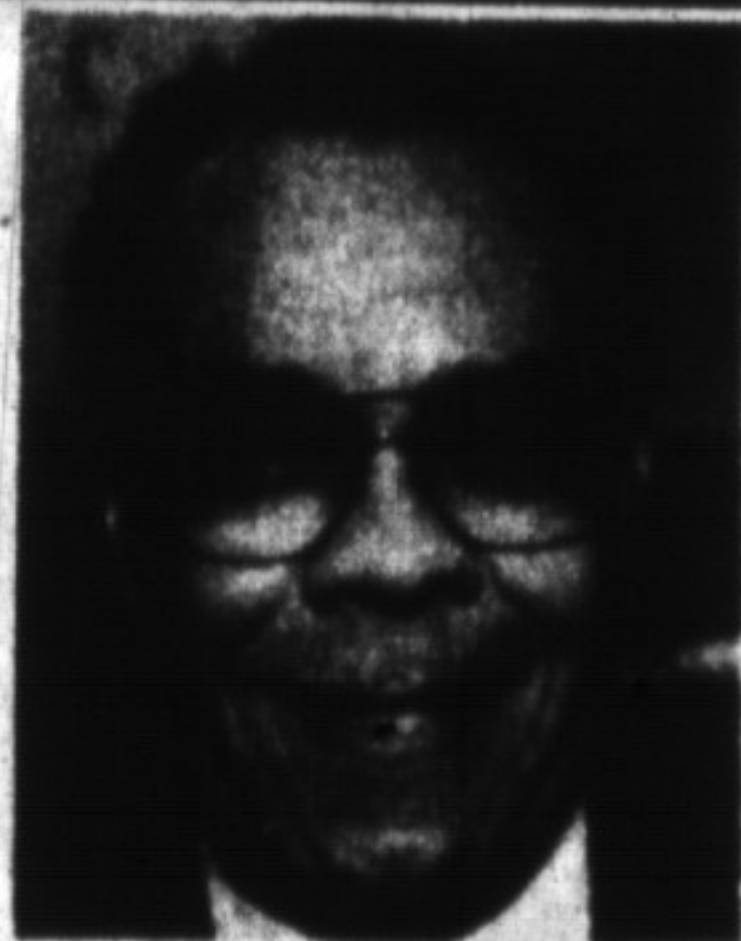

✓ Hilton Falls Conservation Area's hiking trails

✓ Jogging trails through urban Milton

Crawford Lake Indian village attracts tourists and school groups from miles around to Milton.

Dennis Steele

Don Chisholm

The management of Murray Wilson Pontiac Buick Cadillac Ltd. is pleased to introduce Dennis Steele and Don Chisholm to their sales staff.

The many years of experience in GM Automotive Sales will be a welcome addition to the dealership and an asset to our clients.

Dennis comes to us from Connors Chev-Olds in Chatham, with 25 years of experience in the car business and has been a Gold Member of the "Sales Marketing Guild" General Motors highest award, for the last 9 years.

We would like to welcome Don back to Milton from a large Toronto dealership. Don grew up and went to school in the Milton area and brings with him 20 years of sales and service experience.
