Vicious assault

Halton Regional Police and Crime Stoppers of Halton are seeking the public's help in identifying three men responsible for a vicious attack on a young man at an Oakville restaurant.

An employee of the Olive Garden Restaurant, at 165 Cross Ave., was attacked as he left a rear door of the restaurant, Jan. 13. The employee, who had left his vehicle running outside of the restaurant returned to his vehicle and was jumped by three men wearing black ski masks. During a scuffle that ensued the employee was punched and kicked in the head and then stabbed in the right side of his neck by a sharp object, possibly a knife.

The three suspects are described as white males between the ages of 16 and 20. One suspect was reported to be from 5'10" to 5'11" tall, slender build, wearing a black jacket and black gloves. One of the suspect's mask came off during the struggle, revealing shoulder-length dark wavy hair. He was wearing a red and black checked shirt.

If you have any information, please call 1-800-668-5151 or 825-TIPS (8477).

Robbery suspects charged

Four Toronto-area youths have been charged in last Wednesday's armed robbery at the Canadian Tire gas bar which left a female cashier slightly injured.

Three youths entered the kiosk at 2:15 a.m. and demanded cash. One of the trio threatened the cashier with a knife and cut her arm. She sustained minor injuries.

Four teens, three from Mississauga, one from Toronto, then fled with the money in an awaiting car.

Halton Regional Police later stopped a vehicle near the intersection of Steeles Avenue and Winston Churchill, which had been reported stolen in Etobicoke.

The driver and three passengers, three 16, one 17, were charged with armed robbery and possession of stolen property while two others face breach of probation charges. One of the four was also charged with assault with a weapon.

Shoplifting

A 24-year-old Acton woman has been charged with theft after a suspect was caught shoplifting at Zellers last Thursday.

Police say the thief stole $54 worth of goods including aspirin, cosmetics, contact lens products, and a brassiere.

Sexual assault

A Milton woman has reported being sexually assaulted while walking to her Mary Street home early Saturday morning.

A 24-year-old Milton man, an acquaintance of the victim, has been charged with the attack.

POLICE BLOTTER

Police say the woman was walking home from a Main Street night club with a female friend when a male acquaintance offered to accompany her.

The victim was pushed to the ground in an alley and sexually assaulted. A Millside Drive man faces a sexual assault charge.

Car damage

A Charles Street man complained to police that his car has been continually vandalized over a three-week period.

About $1,000 damage has been caused to his Dodge since February 15.

Break and enter

About $20 worth of goods were stolen by a hungry thief from the Petro Canada gas bar Thursday.

The culprit smashed a window and ripped off chocolate bars and corn chips.

Impaired charges

A 27-year-old Campbellville man was charged with drunk driving early Friday morning after being pulled over by police on Derry Road.

He faces charges of refusing to provide a breath sample and impaired driving.

A 25-year-old Weston man also faces drunk driving-related charges after being stopped by police on Martin Street last week.
