PET OF THE WEEK

Bello is a lab cross breed with a rough past. He doesn't seem to have any bad effects from his experiences, though. He is one year old, friendly, and waiting to be adopted from the Oakville Humane Society. He will need a family with someone home because he still has accidents. Bello will be fine with older children. For adoption information, contact the shelter, 445 Maple Ave., by calling 845-1551.
