

Several Springers attend Bolton Invitational Gymnastic Meet

The advanced recreation group of the Milton Springers Gymnastic Club recently had their first taste of competition for the season.

Four girls attended the Bolton Invitational Recreation Meet, doing well by their club and bringing home a number of ribbons.

SPRINGERS' NOTES

Corina Munro, in the Tyro A category, came away with third place in vault, the highest placing of the meet for a Springer. Accompanying that were a sixth place ribbon on beam and a fifth on floor.

The two Argo A participants did well.

Olga Morawczynski placed fifth on bar and sixth on beam and floor.

Teammate Tara Doolan placed fifth on beam and sixth on bar.

The youngest member of the team, Leanne Doolan, competed in the Cadet A division, finishing fourth on bar, fifth on vault and sixth on beam and floor.

The advanced recreation girls go through an audition process to become members of this group.

Under the guidance of coach Alissa King they work out five hours each week.

The Springer precompetitive team is the next one to see action in an upcoming meet in Hamilton.
