Springers go to first meet of season

The Milton Springers pre-competitive teams attended their first meet of the season recently, hosted by the Hamilton-Wentworth Regionettes.

In the Cadet B Division, three Springers had their first meet ever, coming away wiser and clutching a few ribbons. Jessica Deshaw placed sixth on vault and beam, Jennifer Smith earned fifth place on floor, and Katherine Russell was right behind on the floor with a sixth place.

All alone in the Cadet A Division, Shannon Gwilliam earned a bronze medal on bars and a sixth place ribbon on floor.

The senior pre-competitives, Fiona Silcock and Sarah Green, competed in the open category and brought home all sorts of ribbons. Fiona was fourth on floor, fifth on beam and sixth on bars and vault.

Green earned the bronze medal on floor, was fourth on vault, fifth on bars and sixth on beam.

Consolation finalists set

Priestman found the net to make it 5-2. MacMillans came back again as David Banks got his fifth marker for a 6-2 lead.

Action kept trying to edge back into the game. Goals by Viktor Bacht and Kevin Galloway made it 6-4 but Banks finished his second hat trick to give his side a three goal margin of victory.

MacMillans will take on The Dickens who won their consolation semifinal over last year's champions, Hi-Five Hair Design.

The first half of the contest belonged to Hi-Five. Robert Lendvay gave them a lead and they kept the pressure on the Dickens goaltender until Danilo Kozulic knocked one home for a 2-0 lead.

Just before half time Greg Fabi scored for The Dickens to make it 2-1. Hi-Five bounced back after the half and scored again for a 3-1 lead as Anthony Goodban scored on a penalty kick.

The leaders then ran out of steam. Craig Tattersall scored a good goal and Kyle Hasselfeldt popped another and the game was tied.

Despite efforts from both teams to snatch the winner it was 3-3 at the final whistle so the game was determined on penalty kicks.

The Dickens proved to be the better squad in the marksmanship and they advanced to the final.

The finals go on Sunday with MacMillans taking on The Dickens in the consolation final and Flash Gas in against Queens Head Pub for the league title.
