

This design is for murder

The Milton Players Theatre Group has a Design for Murder. That's the title of their next production. Written by George Banson, the play is being directed by Player Wilf Brookes who usually has the role of actor in the group's productions. The play will run April 30, May 1, 2, 6, 8 and 9 at the St. Clair Masonic Hall on Hwy. 25 south of Derry Road. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Tickets cost $8 for shows on Wednesday and Thursday and $10 for Friday and Saturday shows. For ticket information call 875-0629. Tickets are available at the Paper Factory on Main Street.

Woman assaulted in money dispute

A 30-year-old South River, Ont. man faces an assault charge after his former common law wife was assaulted.

The pair met at Fifth Line in Milton March 28 to settle a money issue, and an argument started, police say.

The man allegedly threw the woman to the ground, squeezed her hand until it swelled up, and punched her in the mouth.

Woman injured

A good citizen who decided to intervene in a fight between two teenaged girls on Main Street Sunday ended up getting the worst of it.

The Milton woman received injuries to her forearm and leg by one of the girls in the 11:40 a.m. brawl. The pair were apparently fighting over ownership of a pet rabbit. Police are investigating.

Car recovered, man charged

A 21-year-old Milton man has been charged in connection with the theft of a car last month.

The vehicle went missing over-jail sometime between 4:30 and 6 p.m. Friday.

night March 29 and 30 from the driveway of a Roseheath Drive home.

Following a Halton police investigation, a Laurier Avenue man faces charges of theft and possession of stolen property. The car has been recovered.

Police remind drivers not to leave the keys in their car.

Tools taken

Two tool boxes containing equipment worth about $500 were the target of thieves recently.

Police say the assorted tools were stolen from the garage of a Roseheath Drive home between March 27 and April 5.

Cash missing

About $500 went missing from the petty cash box in the office at Maplehurst Correctional Centre, police say.

The theft took place at the Milton

Theft from auto

An AM/FM cassette stereo and 12 tapes were taken from a car parked on MacDonald Crescent March 31 between 1 and 6 a.m. The unit had an estimated value of $460.

Barbecue stolen

As the warm weather approaches, items such as backyard barbecues are becoming popular with thieves.

A barbecue and propane tank was stolen from the rear patio of a Satok Crescent home sometime between April 2 and 4.

OPP report

The Milton OPP last week charged two people with drinking and driving offences, and two others had their licences suspended for 12 hours as a result of consuming too much alcohol and getting behind the wheel.

Police also allegedly caught four drivers with radar detectors and recorded two liquor seizures from vehicles.
