

Spring fever strikes show

Virtually all of Milton's clothing stores took part in Sunday's Milton District Hospital Auxiliary's Spring Fever fashion show at Halton Hills Place. Everything from workout wear to Sunday-best suits was paraded down the runway for the spring fashion preview. The annual event is one of the auxiliary's major fund raising endeavors. Tickets were sold out as usual.

Hospital executive director Brian Brady was one of several men involved in the auxiliary's fashion show. Organizers would like to see more men in the audience at the annual fund raiser.
