DAVE COULTER'S smiling face can be seen in his Main Street music store from noon to 9 p.m. every day of the week - volunteering his expertise and equipment at various community activities throughout the year and as the leader / singer of the "The Class of '59", a much sought-after local band.

Coulter Music has been operating Downtown for nine years. Currently located on Main Street, it once called Mill Street home for six years.

Dave carries a full range of guitars, keyboards, bass guitars, drums including such brands as Lawrey /Kawai, B.F. Rich, Fender, Crate, Pearl and Ibanez. Sound systems, amplifiers, books, accessories and Karioké tapes round out the offerings.

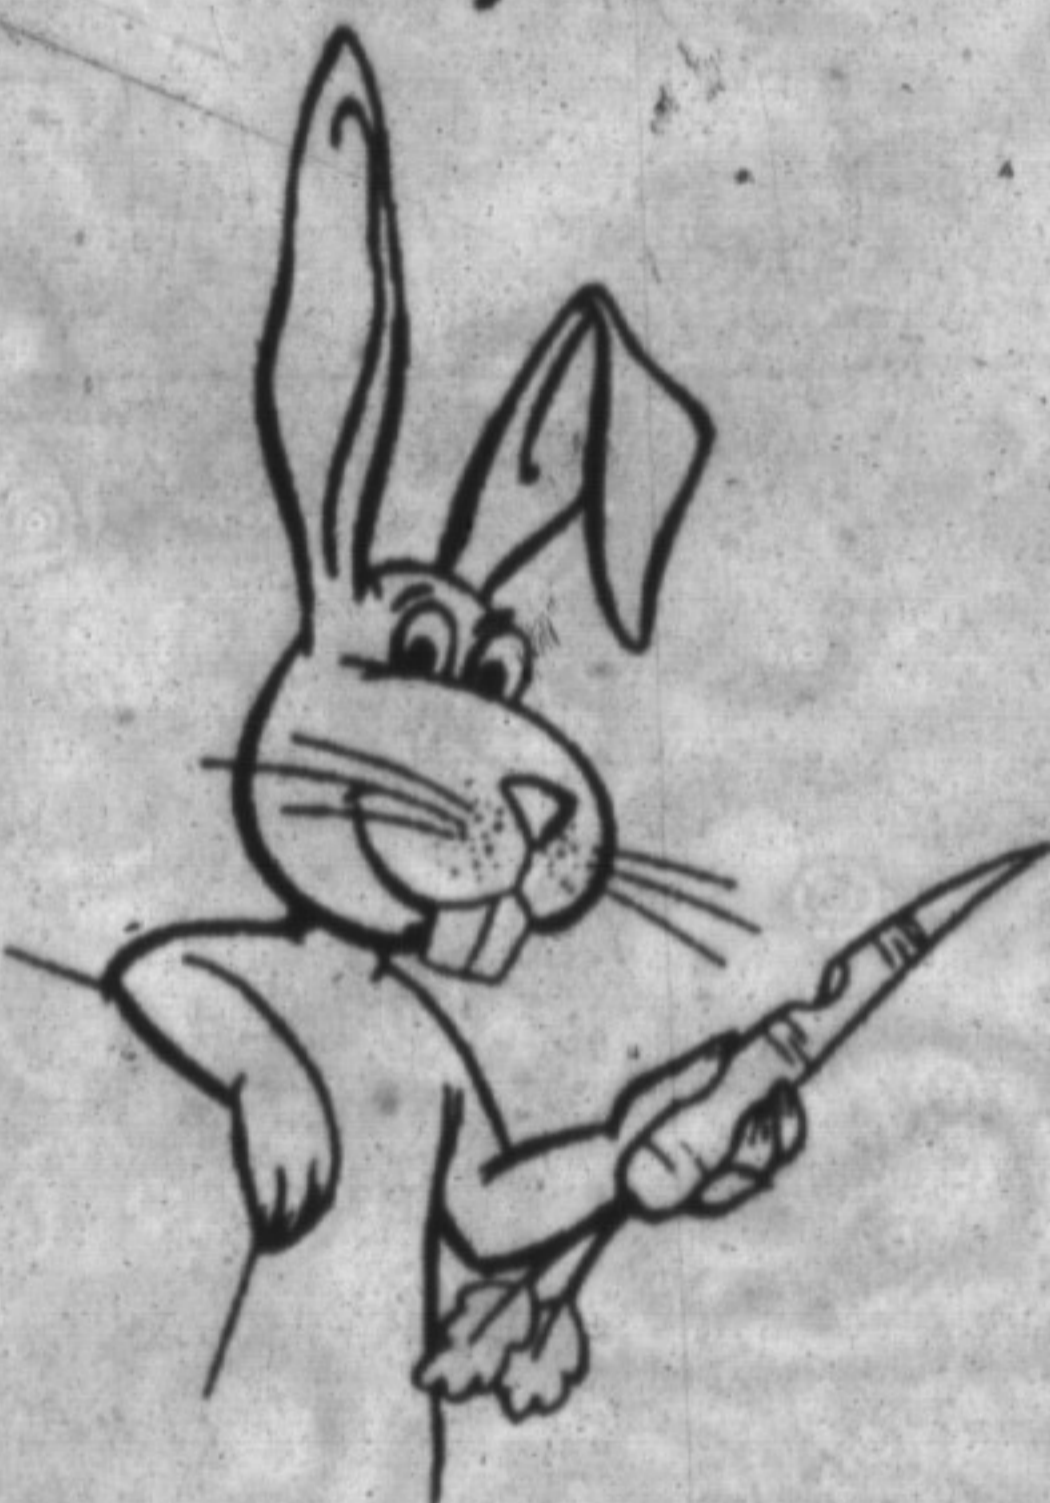

Coulter Music is also a teaching studio offering private instruction only. A large component of Dave's business includes service and repairs plus rentals.

When asked the reasons for his success, Dave said: "I believe the whole of my business relies on repeat customers and the best way I know how to keep them coming back is to give them quality products at competitive prices but mostly I can give SERVICE."

Discover Downtown's Coulter Music for yourself and you soon understand why Dave Coulter has been recognized as Business of the Week.
