

Centre has day-time activities

Fun, socialization, and learning add up to a typical day at the Milton Children and Youth Centre this spring.

The Nipissing Road parent-child centre is currently accepting registration for its next session of programs.

A variety of programs are available for parents or care givers and infants to five year olds during the spring session which gets underway April 27.

Family Time provides a chance for parents to spend time with their children while chatting with other adults. This program takes place Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9 to 11 a.m.

Come by and meet new people while having fun with your child during the Drop In program held Tuesday from 9 to 11 a.m. and Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. (No registration required.)

Child care is provided in the centre's supervised playroom giving parents time to themselves in the Leisure Time program every Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m.

Infants to five year olds can enjoy a full range of activities in the Kids' Time program while parents enjoy Your Time. The adult program includes morning and afternoon seminars on "Making the Most of your Money" and "Personal Growth."

Also held at the centre are after school programs for children and teens aged 6 to 16 years. The programs focus on social skills, self esteem/image, peer relationships, and problem solving, and include such activities as arts and crafts and co-operative games.

The spring session runs until June 19. For more information, or to register, call 876-1244.

Little Callin Crofts, 3, is entertained by the RCMP's Safety Bear and RCMP Constable Michelle Lakusta enjoys the fun as well. The RCMP stationed at Pearson International Airport staged the information session on safety at Milton Children and Youth Centre for the benefit of children and their parents.

With your support cancer can be beaten.
