New low-fat variety

Try 'new-fashioned' macaroni and cheese - you'll be surprised!

If you think that you've said good-bye to your traditional favourite meals in your effort to reduce dietary fat, think again. New-Fashioned Mac 'N' Cheese is lower in fat than standard macaroni and cheese recipes, but it is still very rich and creamy.

The creamy goodness of instant skim milk powder and lower fat ricotta cheese have been substituted for whole fat milk and some of the cheddar.

It is also designed to be faster than ever to make, so try some tonight and satisfy your cravings for mom's home cooking guilt free!

New-Fashioned Mac 'N' Cheese

- 3 1/2 cups (875 ml) water;
- 1/4 cup (50 ml) chopped onion;
- 1 clove garlic, minced;
- 1/4 tsp (1 ml) salt;
- · 2 cups (500 ml) uncooked corkscrew, rotini or macaroni
- 2 tsp (10 ml) dijon mustard;
- Dash hot pepper sauce;

- 1 cup (250 ml) instant skim milk powder;
- 1 cup (250 ml) shredded "old" cheddar cheese;
- 1/2 cup (125 ml) ricotta cheese;
- salt and pepper;

Directions: In large saucepan, combine water, onion, garlic and salt. Bring to boil, add pasta. Cook 8 to 12 minutes until pasta is tender. Remove from heat. Do not drain. Stir in mustard and hot pepper sauce. Stir in skim milk powder, cheddar and ricotta.

Cook and stir over low heat until cheese has just melted. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Makes about four 1 cup (250 ml) servings.
