

Sheep getting hair cut

Find out how sheep's wool becomes a sweater, Sunday, May 10 at Spruce Lane Farm in Bronte Creek Provincial Park when staff will be performing the annual spring event of shearing.

The various stages of the wool process from the sheep to the loom will be demonstrated at the farm house from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Shearing will take place from 1 to 3:30 p.m., in the farmyard.

Also at the park, visitors can help welcome spring by taking a walk along the "Trillium Trail". The spring trilliums and other flowers will be in bloom.

Bronte Creek Provincial Park is located north of the Q.E.W. between Oakville and Burlington. Take Exit 109 onto Burloak Drive north to the park entrance. Entrance to the park is $6 per car. Ontario Seniors' vehicles are $3.
